The Letter from the Archbishop to the Clergy.

Good Brother,

Being by God’s Providence call’d to a new Diocese, with the Circumstances whereof I am very much unacquainted, I shall hold myself extremly oblig’d to You for your Assistance in the Administration of it. To render that move effectual, I send to you and the rest of my Clergy the following Paper of Questions; a clear and satisfactory return to which under the Hand of every several Minister and delivered to my Secretary, or the Register, at the Time of my Visitation, will make me much better acquainted with the Circumstances of this large Diocese, than I cou’d be by any other way, save that of a Parochial Visitation, which it is out of my power to take.

You will therefore be so good as to gratify my request herein, and as this is the only design of my sending these Enquiries to You, You may rest perfectly assured, that no other use shall be made of them, but for my own Information; and for that reason I will hope that You will deal very freely and plainly with me in your Answers to the several Questions.

To God’s Favour and Blessing I heartily commend yourself, and your Labours in His Church, and remain,

Reverend Sir,

Your very affectionate Brother,

Tho. Ebor.

Kensington,
2, May 1743.

To the Minister of__________________________ in the Deanry of______________________________

QUESTIONS.

I. What Number of Families have you in your Parish? Of these, how many are Dissenters? And of what Sort are they?

II. Have you any Licens’d or other Meeting House in your Parish? How many? Of what Sort? How often do they assemble? In what Numbers? Who teaches in them?

III. Is there any public or Charity School, endow’d, or otherwise maintain’d in your Parish? What Number of Children are taught in it? And what Care is taken to instruct them in the Principles of the Christian Religion, according to the Doctrine of the Church of England; and to bring them duly to Church, as the Canon requires?

IV. Is there in your Parish, any Alms-House, Hospital, or other Charitable Endowment? Have any Lands or Tenements been left for the Repair of your Church; or to any other pious Use? Who has the Direction of such Benefactions? How are they managed? Do you know, or have you heard of any Abuses or Frauds committed in the Management of them?

V. Do you reside Personally upon your Cure, and in your Parsonage House? If not, where do you reside? And what is the Reason of your Non-Residence?

VI. Have you a Residing Curate? Is he duly qualified according to the Canons in that Behalf? Does he live in your Parsonage House? What allowance do you make him?

VII. Do you know of any who come to Church in your Parish that are not Baptized? Or that being Baptized, and of a competent Age, are not confirmed?

VIII. How often is the public Service read in your Church? Is it duly perform’d twice every Lord’s-Day? If not, how often, and at what Times is it perform’d? And how comes it not to be twice done, as the Act of Uniformity and Canons of the Church require?

IX. How often and at what Times do you Catechise in your Church? Do your Parishioners duly send their Children and Servants who have not learned their Catechism, to be instructed by you?

X. How often is the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper administer’d in your Church? What Number of Communicants have you in your Parish? How many of them usually receive? Particularly, how many did communicate at Easter last?

XI. Do you give open, and timely Warning of the Sacrament before it is administered? Do your Parishioners send in their Names to you as required? Have you refused the Sacrament to anyone? For what Reason? And how has the Person so refused behaved himself since that Time?

If you have met with any particular Difficulties in the Discharge of your Duty;

If you have observed any particular Defects in the present Canons or Discipline, of the Church;

If you have discover’d any Abuses or Corruptions in any Ecclesiastical Officers, or others concern’d in the Execution of the same;

If you have any Advices to give, or Proposals to make, by which the Glory of God, and the Honour and Interest of our establish’d Church may be promoted, or the Government of this Diocese be better ordered.

I desire you freely to communicate your Thoughts to me; and be assur’d, that a proper Use shall be made of your Suggestions, in order to the Attainment of the End propos’d by them.

Aby 2 years ago Mrs Bryan of Retford left 40 Shillings a year to be disposed of by ye Church-warden in bread nine pence every Lord's Day & twelve pence every Michaelmas for ye poor &t come to ye Church. Wch Charity has hitherto been regularly managed, & no Abuse committed.
V. I reside at South-Leverton abt a mile distant. There is no mansion-House, nor any Remains of one; nor can any body now living remember yt ever yre was one, so far as I can learn.
VI. I have no Curate
VII. No.
VIII. For Answer to ys & ye following Questions I shall beg leave to refer yr Grace to ye Answers I have given for North-Leverton. Ye Church at Aposthorpe being in Ruins, ye people have time out of mind resorted to ye Church at North-Leverton for Divine Service; so yt Aposthorpe & North-Leverton are in effect but one Cure, though they be two distinct parishes.

IX. X. XI. [Blank] THO. EDWARDS Curate.
C. THOMAS EDWARDS. Adm. by D. and C. of York, 7th Sept., 1742. (See Leverton, North and South and Littleborough).

I. There are about one & thirty Families in this Parish; But one Dissenting, a Widow Woman & her Son; of the sect commonly call'd Quakers: not legal Inhabitants.
II. We have no meeting House of any Sort.
III. There is no School in this Parish; But the Children are taught to read, to say their Catechism &c, in the Neighbouring Villages.
IV. There is no Alms House, Hospital or Charitable Endowment in this Parish. There is Lands, to the Value of three pounds ten shillings & Annum; which has been applied, for time immemorial, to the Churchwardens Rates. But by whom it was left or given, or how it came to be applied to that use, there is no Account to be met with now. It was particularly (sic) mention'd in the Church-wardens presentment at your Grace's Visitation at Nottingham. And I humbly submit it to your Grace's wise consideration Whether it is not proper, That your Chancellour should require the Churchwardens, to return a Terrier thereof, to be deposited in your Registry.
V. I reside upon my Cure, & live in my Parsonage House.
VI. I have no Curate.
VII. I know of none who come to Church, that are not Baptiz'd: Nor of any, that are of competent age that are not confirm'd.
VIII. I read the publick Service twice every Lords Day; And once every Holy-Day, except in the time of Harvest: And once every Wednesday & Fryday during the Season of Lent.
IX. My Practice for some years past has been, To begin to Catechise the Children about Easter; And to continue to do so, t'il the Short Days & Cold Weather, make it tiresome to the People.
X. The Custom of this Parish, before I came to it, was to administer the Sacrament, five times every Year; And I continue to do so: viz: On Palm Sunday, Easter Day, Whit'sunday, the Sunday after Michaelmass, & on Christmas Day. The Number of Communicants may be reck'n'd two or three a Family. I have betwixt twenty & thirty, & sometimes forty Communicants. And to the best of my Remembrance, I had on Palm Sunday eighteen, & on Easter Day twenty eight Communicants.
XI. I give open & timely Warning of the Sacrament; by reading the Exhortations appointed: and more commonly the second. The Parishioners do not send in their Names as they are required by the Rubrick. I beg leave to observe; I never was at; or heard of any Place where this was required or practiced by any parish Minester (sic). I never refused any one the Sacrament.

I have not met with any Difficulty in the Discharge of my Duty; but such as by the Grace of God I have easily surmounted. I have not discover’d any particular (sic) Defects in the Canons & Discipline of our Church. The Frame & Foundation is good, But the Iniquity & Licentiousness of Mankind, will not permit us to erect so fine & glorious a Superstructure, as it will bear, & was originally intended & design’d. I have not discovered any abuse in any ecclesiastical Officer. It would be a degree of Presumption in me, who am placed in so obscure a Station, that I can see or know little of the World, to offer any Advices to my Superiors. The best way, that I can promote the Honour & Glory of God, & the Interest of our establish’d Church, is, By observing the Laws, Canons, Rubricks & Discipline of it, as well as I am able: And by Obeying the Commands of my Superiors, whenever they are sent unto me.

Art: 11th.—There is always notice given the Sunday before the Sacrament is to be administered. It has not been requir’d of the Parishioners to send in their Names. I never refused the Sacrament but to one Gentlewoman who would have received with her Brother whom I visited when sick: The reason was: She had absent’d a long time from the Church, and would never give me any sufficient or satisfactory reason for so doing; She afterwards came to the Church and behaved very well; But is lately removed into another part of the Country.

If a Table of Fees was put up in every place where the Ecclesiastical Court is kept, it might be a means to prevent abuses or Corruptions.

31. [Colston-Basset, Bingham.]

(Not written on the printed Form).

The Answers of Thos Rose, Vicar of Colston-Basset, in the Deanry of Bingham &c.

I There are twenty eight Families in my Parish. Of these four are Dissenters. Two families of Anabaptists, and two Popish Families.

There are no Licens'd Meeting-Houses in my Parish. The Anabaptists in this Parish frequently resort to the Church. There is no Meeting House in the Anabaptists in my Parish. The Papists in this Parish, and the adjacent Villages, privately assemble at a House in this Town once in six or eight Weeks. I do not know the number of them yet do assemble. The Number of Papists in this Town is twelve. Mr Busby, a reputed Popish Priest teaches them. I humbly presume to Note to your Grace that the Papists in this Parish are descended from Popish Parents introduced into this Parish by the late Sr Edwd Golding, a Papist: who was possess'd of an Estate of 1100£ p annum in this Lordship, and whose abode was in this Town. The late Lord Strafford purchas'd the said Sr Edwd Golding's Estate in this Lordship: since which time, the number of Papists in this Parish has been decreasing.—I have been informed that when Sr Edwd Golding liv'd here, there were but three Persons in this Parish lawfully qualified to serve the Parish Officers.

3 There is not any public or Charity School endow'd, or otherwise maintain'd in my Parish.
4 There is not, in my Parish, any Alms-House, or other Charitable Endowment.
5 I do reside Personally upon my Cure, and in my Vicarage-House.

6 I have no Curate here.
7 I do not know of any who come to Church, in my Parish that are not Baptiz'd. Or that are Baptiz'd, and of a competent Age, are not Confirm'd; save some Anabaptists in my Parish, who, sometimes, come to Church.

8 The public Service is duly perform'd in my Church twice every Lord's-Day. I declare unto my Congregation on a Sunday, at the time appointed in the Communion Service, what Holy-days, or Fasting-days, there are in the Week following. I do read the public Service on many of those Days. I would read it on all of them, according to the Letter of the Rubrick, but I cannot, for want, sometimes, of a Congregation. My Parishioners, being Persons of ordinary Condition, are hinder'd from attending on some of those days, by their Secular Employments.

9. I Catechise in my Church every Lord's-day during the solemn Season of Lent. The Masters and Parents in my Parish duly send their Children and Servants to be Catechis'd. I prepare Catechetical Discourses, by which I instruct them in the Principles of the Christian Religion, and endeavour to inculcate them on their Minds. My Parishioners not only send their Children and Servants to the public Catechising,

1 See Appendix A.
2 Sir Edward Golding, 3rd and last Bart, was buried here on 8th December, 1715.
but come themselves also: When not only the ignorant is informed, but the best improv'd, I trust, hear somewhat that confirms their Faith; or directs their Practice.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administer'd in my Church, at least, four times in every Year. I have forty nine Communicants in my Parish. About thirty six of them usually receive. Thirty eight communicated at Easter last.

I do give open and timely Warning of the Sacrament before it is administer'd, by reading the Exhortation, enjoin'd by the Rubric, on the Sunday immediately preceding the celebration of the Holy Communion. My Parishioners do not send in their Names to me. It has not been usual to do so In Future I will exhort my Parishioners to send in their Names to me, as the Rubric directs. It is matter of Consolation and Rejoicing to me that there have not, since I have been Vicar of this Parish, been any Notorious Ill Livers in my Parish. I have not refus'd the Sacrament to any one.

I have not, I thank God, met with any uncommon Difficulties in the Discharge of my Duty. I have not observ'd any Defects in the present Canon's, or anything much amiss in the Discipline of the Church. I have not discover'd any Abuses or Corruptions in any Ecclesiastical Officers. I cannot give any Advices, or make any Proposals by which the Glory of God, & the Honor and Interest of our establish'd Church may be more promoted, than they will be by the Wisdom and Piety of your Grace's Counsels, the Authority of your Precepts, and the brightness of your high Example. Neither can I make any proposals whereby the Government of this Diocese may be better order'd, than it will be by your Grace's Administration of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

My Lord,

In obedience to your Grace's Command I have truly and,
I hope, clearly and satisfactorily, answer'd the several Questions contained in your Grace's Paper of Questions. I humbly beg your Grace's Benediction, who am, my Lord,
Your Grace's most dutiful & most obedient humble Servt.

51. [Eakring, Newark].

(Not written on the printed Form).

The Minister of Eakring’s Answers to the ArchBishop of York’s Questions 1743

Questions

1. We have about Seventy Families, one of them of the Quaker’s Perswasion; and we have a Labourer a Papist.

2. We have no Meeting House.

3. We have no Charity or publick School. Some few Children, whom their Parents want Power or Leisure to teach at Home, are sent occasionally & at Wide Intervals of Time to one or other of two or three Persons in the Town, who teach them poorly to read & write.

4. We have no Endowments of any Kind. There was formerly seventeen Pound left in Money by three several People for the Use of the Poor. This Money was put into the Hands of the Parish Officers, who sunk the Principal in a Lawsuit they had with a neighbouring Parish about forty years ago. However seventeen shillings, as Interest, is yearly paid to the Poor by the Churchwardens.

5. I reside constantly at Eakring, & in my Parsonage House.

6. I have no Curate or Assistant.

7. I know of none that come to my Church and are not baptized; nor of any that being baptized and of a competent Age are not confirmed.

8. I constantly read Prayers and preach on the Lord’s Day in the Morning. And in the Afternoon I read Prayers again, unless call’d out to the Assistance of a neighbouring Minister, which seldom happens. I have tried to bring my People to Prayers on Holidays; but they neither will nor indeed can come.

9. I do not catechise in my Church at present. I used to do it formerly every Sunday in the Afternoon during Lent, & at the same Time I explained the Catechism. At first, whilst the Thing was new, a pretty many Children came (but no Servants) and several grown Persons attended. By Degrees both one and the other dwindled away, till I was quite discouraged from proceeding. None send their Children or Servants to be instructed in their Catechism by me.

10. I administer the Lord’s Supper on Christmas Day and the Sunday following, on Easter Day and the Sunday after that. These are my stated Times, well known to my Parishiners, & are scarce ever varied. The Number of Communicants must be guess’d from the Number of Families. I had about four or fifteen each Day last Easter. And the Number is seldom greater, or much less.

11. I read the Exhortation in the Communion Office always on the Lord’s Day immediately preceding the first Christmas & the first Easter Sacrament, unless I preach on the Occasion. My Neighbours never send in their names before they communicate. I never refused the Sacrament to any of them, nor ever had Occasion to do so.
May it please your Grace.

You have here a Return to your printed Questions. If any of my Answers are not sufficiently clear & satisfactory, I will endeavour to make them so upon the first Intimation of your Lordships Pleasure to

Your most dutifull & obedient Servant

57. Elksley, [Elkesley]
Retford.

I. In the Parish of Elksley are 42 Families; Of these three Families are Anabaptists. Ten of them are Farmers; the Rest are Labourers & petty Tradesmen, Such as Weavers, Taylors &c. There is only one Person that has abt 60 or 70l to a Year; the rest are Tenants to the Duke of Newcastle & to that person, whose Name is Sharpe.

II. We have no Meeting House; the Anabaptists going to another Town to Meeting. One of the Anabaptists is a Farmer, another a Taylor, the 3d a Labourer.

III. We have no publick or Charity School; but a School in the Neighbouring Parish, to which the Children of Elksley are free. That School was founded by a Steward of the Earl of Clare (Heir of whc Family is the present Duke of Newcastle) for the teaching of ye Children of Six Parishes, viz. Garston, Elksley, West-Drayton, Mill-town Bevercotes & Botthomsal. English, Writing & Accompts, & commonly Latin to some is taught.

IV. We have neither Alms-House, Hospital or other Charitable Endowment. Nothing is left for the Repair of our Church. A Rate or An Assesmt. at 4d p pound commonly answers all occasional Expences for a Year.

V. I do not reside in my House, it being a very mean one; let with a Croft of half an Acre of Ground at 18s. p Year. And the Oldest person in the Parish remembers no Minister to ha' liv'd in it. I acquainted the late A-Bishop with this & he has granted me a Dispensation to be absent, or to live at a neighbouring Town, three Miles of, upon my Assuring him Care should be taken of its Repairs. There are only 4 poor Rooms in it. The Walls are studded & daubed with clay.

VI. I attend on all Occasions; having no other Cure but a Grammar School, at East-Retford three little Miles from Elksley of which School I have been Master almost 35 Years, & Curate & Vicar of Elksley near 28 Years.

VII. All the Rest of my Parishioners, but the Anabaptists, come constantly to Church & wn there is a Confirmation, they take Care to come to it. viz. Such as are of a competent Age, 13 Years old being the youngest I allow to present themselves.

VIII. I read Prayers & Preach every forenoon & read Prayers again in the Afternoon every Sunday, & on Such Holy-days, as I think there will be any Company at Prayers; All the Families living by Farming & Hand Labour, & petty Trades.

IX. I catechize about 3 Months in the Year, & read a Lecture on Some Part of the Catechism to the Congregation, after the Children have repeated it, Each Sunday generally. I have compos'd 26 Lectures on the Catechism, taking Example from my very Learned & judicious Brother Dr. Busby's Design in Lincoln Shire.

X. The Sacrament is administered at Christmas once, twice at Easter, Once at WhitSunday, & once at Michaelmas. The Number of Communicants at Easter last were between 50 & 60, both Days. At my first going, I order'd the Clerk, yt then was to take an Acct every Commission; but the Clerk now ha', is but a poor Writer, but as good as we could get. The Sallary being under 20 shill. a Year, & none but this Man wou'd accept the Place.

XI. I give always open Notice a Week for the most part before I administer the Sacrament. It has not been customary for the Parishioners to Send in ther Names. Besides Notice, I frequently preach the Sunday before on that Subject.

My Ld,
Elksley Living has been held both by me & my Predecessors by Licence, as being but of little Value, but about 4 Years ago, I was for'd to take it out the Broad Seal, by a Neighbouring Curate, wo attempted to deprive me of it. This is the Difficulty I ha' laboured under. I have one thing to acquaint Yor Grace wth. The Approbation of the Arch Bishop of York is to be had by every new Master & Usher of our School at Retford; & if there is not an Acct of ye Orders relating to It in the Registry Office, upon Notice I shall transmit Such a Copy as I have, & subscribe my self in ye mean time.

68. Gamston, Retford.

I. There are about 36 Families in this Parish; 3. of these are dissenting from the Church; & are all Anabaptists.
II. There is but one Licens’d Meeting house in the Parish: besides extraordinary Fasts before Dipping, they assemble twice every Sunday, & every Wednesday evening; the Ordinary Preacher is Joseph Jefferys, a Farmer of this Parish.
III. We have no endowed School within the Parish, but the Parishioners have the Privilege to send their children to the publick School by Houghten Parck.
IV. There is no other Charitable endowment, but four pounds, left by two different Farmers, the interest of which is every year regularly paid to the poor.

1 See Appendix B.
2 See Appendix C.
ARCHBISHOP HERRING'S VISITATION RETURNS.

V. The Rector does constantly reside in the Parsonage House.
VI. There is no other Curate in the Parish.
VII. I know of no Persons, who come to Church, but what are baptized; nor any above fourteen, who are not confirmed.
VIII. Publick Service is duly performed every Lord's day, at ten in the Morning, & three in the afternoon.
IX. The Children & Servants are Catechised during Lent every Lord's day, & I know of no Church people, who keep them from it.
X. The Lord's Supper is administered four times a year; There never were under 20. Sometimes near 40. Last Easter, to the best of my remembrance, about 30. Communicants.
XI. I always read the Admonition, & Sometimes preach upon the Subject, the Sunday before the Sacrament is administered; I had no new Communicants, since I come (sic) to this Parish; nor any of the Cases mentioned in this Article.
1. The more ignorant our Dissenters are, the more are they Zealous to make Proselytes; when they can prevail with any Person, they make them generally so obstinate, that they will give no ear to any advice, or argument!
2. I could wish, Some expressions in the Service for the 30th of January were mitigated; particularly as to those Passages of Scripture, which are only applicable to the Sufferings of our Saviour.
3. I have no particular complaint as to this Article; I only wish, when there is a Sermon to be preached on Extraordinary Past days, we had Earlier Notice, for a due Preparation for it.
4. What I am going to say is, I doubt, odious, if not offensive & Scandalous to Some among us; but as the Apostles themselves used to go to Heathen Temples; I cannot but think, it might be of use, if we were allowed, to be more conversant with Dissenters, both in publick, & private, we might have a better Opportunity, to convince them, that we do not look upon Forms & Ceremonies as Essentials, but only as helps & assistance to true Religion; which, where they have nothing in them either Idolatrous, or Superstitious, nor against Scripture, ought to be complied with for Decency's & order's Sake.

II. No Meeting-House.
III. At present there's no School, but the Children are sent to School in the neighbouring Towns.

There is a Yearly Sum of £3 : 11s : 00d left for the Use of the Poor which is duly apply'd by the Minister & Church Wardens who are the Trustees thereof. Will abt. 20 years agoe to the Minister of Gringley and his Successors for ever.

V. I reside at Walkingham which is about a mile and half distant from Gringley on the Hill.

VI. I have no Curate.

VII. I don't know of any such

VIII. I read the publick Service here once every Sunday either in the Forenoon or Afternoon, and the same at Walkingham

IX. It is my Custom to catechise here in every Week during Lent, and likewise to read Prayers. The Parishioners send their Children pretty constantly, but I can't say their Servants, neither can I easily prevail upon 'em to do it; it being a Farming-Town, where they have constant Employt. for their Servts.

X. It is administer'd four times in the Year. I don't justly know the Number of those that are old enough to receive the Sacramt. but I think we have generally between 40 & 50 that do communicate, and at Easter last we had near eighty. There are, I think, about 220 (reckoning Servants) above 16 years old.

XI. Due Warning is always given of the Sacramt. As to sending in the Names, I found the Practice, when I came here, entirely disus'd, and, I believe, it will be difficult to introduce it—I have not yet refus'd any one the Sacramt.

XI. I do give open & timely Warning &c The Parishioners do not send in their Names: That Practice had been discontinued before my Time: I do intend to renew it.

In relation to these Particulars I have nothing to offer to Your Grace's Consideration that is worthy of it.

I also read the Publick Service upon the chief Holy-days of the Church, and upon Fast Days & Thanksgiving Days appointed by Parliament or by His Majesty.
IX. I catechise in this Parish Church six Sundays in the Summer time after the second Lesson at Evening Service. The Parishioners do send their Children & Servants who have not learn'd their Catechism to be instructed by me.

To the 1st The Parish of Hockerton consists of Thirteen Small Families, in whc. are no Dissenters of any Denomination.

2d We have nothing yt. bears any Relation to these Querues.

3d We have no School. Those that have any Teaching go to Learn in the Neighbouring Parishes, & are taught their Catechism by their Parents or School masters.

4th We have nothing relating to these Enquiries.

8th. The Service is performd once every Lords Day. My Rectory of Hockerton is about Sixty Pounds p ann. I serve it alternately with Kirklington which, Taxes paid, is Sixteen pound p. ann. An Income which I hope your Grace will not think overmuch for a Clergyman, Even in Celibacy, to Live with a little Decency, & some Sort of Indepenency.

9th I take the Liberty to Catechise between Easter and Whit-suntide rather than in Lent, the latter Being the Hurry of seed time, Young Persons are not so well at Leisure to Learn or be Instructed in their Catechism, the Parishioners otherwise being not remiss in sending their Children or Servants.

10th The Sacrament is Administered constantly at the three great Festivals, & once after Harvest. Communicants in the Parish are upwards of thirty. They that Receivd the last Easter were above Twenty.

11th I give Warning of the Sacrament as Directed by the Rubrick. The Parishioners sending their Names is not customary nor was ever known to have been done. I have never found sufficient Cause, for refusing ye Sacramt. to any one.

JAMES GIBSON

I have not met with, in Either of my Parishes, any Particular Difficulty in the Discharge of my Duty, nor may I presume to Judge of Canons or Discipline, neither do I know of any Abuses in Ecclesiastical Officers or others. I can promise Your Grace, I shall use my best Endeavours to do my Duty in my own little Sphere, so as to promote the Glory of God, & the Honour & Interest of our Establish'd Church, as far as it shall lye in my Power, and am Your Graces Dutifull Son & Servant

May it please your Grace.

I was presented, by the late Archbishop, to the Vicarage of Kinalton about 7 Years ago & hold with it, by his License, the perpetual Curacy of Owthorpe, an adjoining Parish. Your Grace will be pleased to accept of the underwritten Answers to the Questions delivered at your primary Visitation, relating to each of these Parishes.

Your Grace is Rector of Kinalton & Patron of the Vicarage. The great Tythes are leased to Thos. Noel Esqre, owner of the Lordship & he has lately renewed his Lease. If any Thing shou’d happen, Your Grace may depend upon Information & the best Services of your most dutiful humble Servant.

KINALTON Aug: 29. 1743.

R. HARDY.

KINALTON V. NOTTS. D Bingham.

I. We have 32 Families. One Family attends promiscuously ye Presbyterian, ye Independent & Anabaptist Meeting Houses. I had a Quaker in my Parish about 60 Years of Age, who was seduced in his Apprentiship (sic); but, being of no very obstinate Disposition, I, by honest & persuasive Methods, by cool & mild Reasoning, by the Cogency as well as Authority of Scripture, brought him over to ye Church, about a Year ago.

II. We have no Meeting House.

III. We have no publik School. I have lately set on Foot a Subscription among my Parishioners, to which I, at least proportionably, contribute, wch. amounts to about £12 per Annum: This we give to an honest & religious Man to instruct ye Children in English, Writing & Accompts. I have laid him under a particular Obligation to teach ye Children ye Church Catechism & to see that they duly attend divine service. He has near 40 Children under his Care.

IV. Two Houses were formerly left (We have only Tradition for it) by two ancient Maidens Sisters, to ye Communion Cup: The Rent is, however, duly paid to ye Churchwardens & constantly laid out in Wine, for ye Use of ye Communicants.

V. I reside upon my Cure & in ye Vicarage-House.

VI. I do the Duty myself.

VII. Every Person in my Parish has been baptized & as many as were of a competent Age & Understanding & had not received ye Holy Sacrament, were confirmed at Your Grace’s primary Visitation.

VIII. I read ye publik Service & preach in my Church every Sunday once. I have, as I mention’d above, a perpetual Curacy at Owthorpe, worth about £20 p Annum, & within a Mile of this Place, & serve ye Churches alternately.

IX. The Schoolmaster catechises ye Children every Thursday & Saturday throughout ye Year & I examine them every Wednesday & Friday in Lent & read a catechetical Lecture on each of those Six Sundays, at either Kinalton or Owthorpe, in ye Afternoon. The Parishioners duly send their Children to be catechised, but have not always Power over their ignorant & obstinate Servants.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper is administered four Times in a Year. I have 48 Communicants. Generally about 30 receive. Last Easter I had 38.

XI. I give Notice of a Sacrament alwas on the Sunday before administration. It is not here usual for any to send in their Names except new Communicants. I never yet refused ye Sacrament to any one.

1. I have not, I bless God! met with any uncommon Difficulty in ye Discharge of my Duty.

Kirkby September the 17th. 1743
To
The Most Reverend Father in God Thomas by Divine Providence Lord Arch-Bishop of York Primate of England and Metropolitans—

The Answers of John Brailsford Rector of Kirkby in Ashfield in the County of Nottingham and in the Province and Diocese of York aforesaid to certain Questions sent by His Grace the said Arch-Bishop to the said Mr. Brailsford dated Kensington, May 2. 1743.

1. I have about Sixscore Families in my Parish. Seven of them are Protestant Dissenters.—Presbyterians or Independents. There is besides One Family of Quakers in my Parish. And there are an uncertain Number of Persons that run up and down after the Methodist-Teachers.*

* See Appendix C.
there may be about Sixty Communicants in my Parish, that about thirty or forty of them do usually receive, and particularly that about forty might receive last Easter.

11th. I do give open and timely Warming of the Sacrament before it is administer’d. My Parishioners do not send in their Names to me as requir’d. I have not refus’d the Sacrament to any one.

With my Most hearty Prayers to God for His special Favour and Blessing on Your Grace in the Discharge of Your Grace’s High Office, I am, Your Grace’s Most Dutiful Son & Most humble Servant

JOHN BRAILSFORD.

I Beg Your Grace’s Direction concerning those that offer themselves to be Partakers of the Sacrament, and have not sent in their Names, as also, in the like Case those who follow the Methodists.

There is one Mary Gilbert a Poor Woman in my Parish stands excommunicated for Contumacy, having been presented for Fornication, who would have submitted to the Court, had it not been for her Father, an unworthy Man, whom having found Clarke at my coming into this Parish, I continued, ’till, for his Misbehaviour in this and other Respects, I found myself oblig’d to displace him. Would Your Grace be pleas’d to give Directions that the N. J. Gilbert’s Submission might be accept’d without Charge, I believe She might be brought to submit. Otherwise it may please Your Grace to consider whether it might not be proper for Your Grace to give Directions for the Prosecution of the said Excommunicate, for the Prevention of such obstinate Contumacy.

As Ecclesiastical Processes are pro meruo salute animarum, ought they not to be carried on against Rich & Poor—without Respect of Persons, against the former without Commutations, against the latter ex Officio?

Could not Application be some way successfully made that no Denomination of Christians in these Realms should receive into their Congregations any that are Excommunicate, or any way under Process according to the Forms of Discipline of another Persuasion for any scandalous Immorality?

Could not Application be made with hopes of Success for a Proclamation, to put in force against the Methodists the Laws in being against Protestant Dissenting Teachers not qualifying themselves according to these Laws?

I am most humbly of Opinion that a particular Exhortation from Your Grace to the Members of the Church of England in Your Grace’s Province to receive the Sacrament three times in the Year of which Easter to be one, and to send in their Names to the Ministers of their respective Parishes before their receiving, would be a happy Means to remedy that Vexation and Neglect, which I am afraid is but too general in those Respects.

V. I do not constantly reside tho’ generally a good part of my time is spent at Normanton. one reason of my boarding att Marham is this, it is more agreeable to & is in some measure the Desire of my good friend Mr. Cartwright, at least so long as I am Single. another reason is, there is no convenient place to board in at Normanton, the farmers are engaged in other business & the rest are either not able or willing to take me in.

ARCHBISHOP HERRING’S VISITATION RETURNS.

VIII. The Publick Service is performed (sic) once every Lord's Day, one Sunday at ten in the Morning, the next at two in the afternoon, alternately. The reason why the Publick Service is not twice done as is required is owing to the poverty of the living (it not being worth to me above 33s. p annum), & the Custom of the Place.

IX. I Catechise the Children every Lent three or four times; & at the beginning of Every Lent give a Publick charge in the Church to Parents & Masters to take good care to teach their Children & Servants the Catechism but none have hitherto been sent to be instructed by me except some few times before Your Graces Visitation at Newk.

IX. I catechise in my Church on the last Sunday in every Month, excepting the three Winter Months, an Hour before service begins in the afternoon. But I cannot say that my Parishioners send their Children and Servants, so duly as they ought, to be instructed.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered in my Church upon Christmas day, Good Friday, Easter-day, Whitsunday and the first Sunday in every Month. I. Remston, September ye 10.

Be pleas'd to know, my Lord, That we have only forty six families in my parish: and onely one person (a man) a Dissenter; who is a Prebyterian (sic).

II. We have no Meeting-house in my Parish, now: I thank God.

III. There is no publick Charity-School in my parish. I send eight poor Children to School; by which means, my parishioners have an opportunity of sending 15, or 20 more: who are all perfectly taught ye Churc (sic) Catechism, and brought duly to Church.

IV. We have 12 Shillings a year, Settled for bread to our poor, of which ye Church-wardens have ye direction. We have also 20 pounds, put out to interest upon good security, entrusted with ye Minister & C-wardens for ye use of ye poor. I believe there is no miss-management. We have, yet, no other Charity.

V. I reside personally upon my Cure, and in my Parsonage-house; as now I have done, for near forty years.

VI. I have no Curate.

VII. I know of no person who comes to my Church, being unbaptized: and of few, (except, it may be, Some of ye eldest Sort, or Some Servants) who being baptized, & of competent age, are not Confirmed.

VIII. On ye 5th of November, ye 30th. of January, Ashwednesday, Good-Friday, the King’s Accession-day, and all ye other days of Humiliation and Thanksgiving, appointed by Authority. Publick Service is duly perform’d twice every Lord’s day. We are, all, about a mile off ye Church: else, I wd. be glad to have Prayers daily.

IX. I catechise in my Church every Sunday, from ye first Sunday in Lent to ye first Sunday in November, & always (to ye best of my power) expound upon ye Catechism: this is done, after ye 2d. Lesson at Evening-prayer. And (Permit me to add) from ye 1st. Sund-in Novbr. to ye 1st. S-in Lent, I take occasion from (sic) Some part of ye 1st, or 2d. Lesson, to exhort our people for a quarter of an hour; to keep (sic) ‘em together. The children & servants attend pretty well: but there is room enough for amendment.

X. It is administer’d, twice at Easter, twice at Whitsuntide, twice at Christmas, and once at Michaelmass. I have about an hundred Communicants: fifty, or fifty five of which usually receive: and about ye said number did communicate at Easter last.

XI. I do give such warning, and also read one of ye Exhortations, as I see expedient. My Parishioners do not use to send in their names: wch., perhaps, may be more excusable in a small parish, in which ye people are well known to thir minister. But I acquiesce in ye general expediency of ye Rubrick. I have not yet refused ye Srmt to any one: nor had any occasion so to do.

As to what remains above, I have little to observe; as being humbly of opinion, That it wd. be enough to obey our good old laws. I only heartily pray, That Discipline may be prudently & impartially kept up, according to our best observation & information: and humbly waiting for ye honour of your Grace’s further commands, I remain, My Lord, Yr. Grace’s most obliged, dutifull and humble Servant

the Minister of Remston

Should I not be able sometime within a month humbly to beg yr Grace’s blessing at Bpsthorp, it would be an affliction to me.

ARCHBISHOP HERRING’S VISITATION RETURNS.

134. Rossington, Retford.

I. I have in my Parish thirty four Families, who are all of the Communion of the Church of England.

II. There is no meeting House of any Sort in my Parish.

III. There is in my Parish a public School endow'd with an annual Salary of 6l : 13s : 4d. In wch the Farmers Children and others (who are sometimes more sometimes less in Number, seldom less than ten or so many as twenty) are taught the English Language and to write and cast up Accounts; and they are there instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, according to the Doctrine of the Church of England, and come, I believe, duly to Church.

IV. There is not in my Parish any Alms-House, or Hospital; nor any Lands or Tenements left for ye Repair of my Church, or to any other pious Use.

V. I do not reside personally upon my Cure, having been forc'd to remove from it on Account of the dangerous and very Melancholy state of my Wife’s Health attested under the Hand of a physician who attended her during a long Illness and sign’d a Certificate (wch I sent as I remember to the Archdeacon) that it was not consistent with her Health to live in this parish. My wife is still living and enjoys better Health at Leicester where for ye most part I live with her and my Family; but I come and reside once a year for some weeks at my Parsonage House, and perform ye Duties of my Parish: and heartily wish I cou’d always reside in it.

VI. I have a licenc’d Curate, who is a single man, and not having an Opportunity of boarding in this Parish, he had the late Arch-Bishop’s Leave to reside at Doncaster wch is three Miles from Rossington. He duly performs all the Parish Duties to ye entire Satisfaction both of me and ye Parish. He serves no other Cure, and I allow him twenty eight pounds a year, wch is about one third of the clear Value of the Rectory.

VII. I know of none who are not baptiz’d in my Parish; nor of any of a competent Age who are not confirm’d. I believe there are none such.

VIII. public divine Service is duly perform’d twice every Lord’s Day in my Parish, as my Curate and others assure me, only excepting two or three Lord’s Days in the year, when ye public Service is perform’d but once a Day, either on Account of my Curate’s Absence, or his serving a Neighbouring (sic) Incumbent, who serves this Cure in such his Absence.

IX. Catechising is duly perform’d by myself every year in Some Part of the summer Time when I reside; and this Season is most convenient for the Children of my Parish, who are by my Order duly sent to be Catechiz’d, and have ye whole Catechism once a year explain’d to them in the plainest and most familiar Manner: and this I esteem the most useful part of parochial Duty and most necessary to be duly perform’d. I have not omitted it (I think) more than two or three Times in ye Space of 35 years and my Curate (as I advis’d him) tells me that he catechiz’d in those years when I happen’d to omit it. Servants are not sent to be catechiz’d, but they attend the Exposition of the Catechism when the Children are catechiz’d.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper is administer’d in my Church five Times a year, of wch two are at Easter-Tide when there are the greatest Number of Communicants; and at other Times a competent Number communicate: but my Curate does not remember how many communicated at Easter last.

XI. open and timely warning is always given of the Sacrament before it is administer’d: but the parishioners do not send in their Names, nor are requir’d so to do, because they are few and all well known to me and my Curate. The Sacrament has not been refus’d to any one.

JOHN JACKSON

[On a separate sheet].

May it please your Grace

Rossington, Jul. 16, 1743.

I have return’d Answers to the several Questions propos’d by your Grace to your Clergy: and observing that you farther desire your Clergy freely to communicate their Thoughts to you on several important points, I here freely send you your Grace my serious Thoughts on two Things.

1. The 62d Canon requires that no Minister—under any pretense whatsoever—shall join any persons in Marriage—but either in the Churches or Chapels where one of them dwelleth. But it is, I believe, a common practise for Licenses to be granted to marry Persons where neither of them dwells; and where they are mere Strangers to the Minister who marries them. This practise is and will be attended with very bad Consequences both to Church and State. If this is the practise anywhere in your Grace’s Diocese, it is fit your Grace should be acquainted with it.

2. The Advice wch I give and proposal wch I humbly make to your Grace, by wch the Glory of God and the Honour and Interest of our establish’d Church may be greatly promoted, is, that your Grace should use your utmost Endeavours as a Christian Bishop to enlarge Xstian Liberty by the propagation and Encouragement of Xstian Truth, and removing from our Establishment all those Difficulties in several Articles of the Church, wch seem inconsistent with the Church of England Declaration in the sixth Article and also in the 20th and 21st, of the Scriptures being a sufficient Rule of Faith; and that nothing is to be requir’d of any man, that is not read therein—or may be declar'd to be taken out of them, as an Article of Faith or Term of Worship and Christian Communion.

As by the Grace and Providence of God alone you are rais'd to the high Station you now fill in the Church; and are, I verily believe, most worthy of it; so there is no one, I trust, better dispos'd than your Grace to promote the Interest of the Christian Religion, wch most of all promotes the Glory of God.

May it then be your Grace's Study, and the great as it is the most worthy Subject of your Zeal for the Glory of God and of your Love for Jesus Christ the only perfect Teacher of Truth, that the everlasting Gospel, wch is the only Rule of Xstian Truth may be not only professed but received as such; and that nothing may be require'd but what Christ himself or his Apostles in his Name have plainly and expressly taught and deliver'd as Matter of Faith and Worship and as necessary to Salvation.

It must be an unspeakable Grief to every sincere and good Christian to see that humane Doctrines and Traditions altogether ungrounded in Scripture and in several Instances directly contrary to it, are impos'd as Articles of the Xstian Faith and Worship and as Terms of Xstian Communion, to the high Dishonour of God and of the Church of Christ, who by these Means are blasphem'd, and the Revelation of their Word malign'd and ridicule'd by Unbelievers; and the establish'd Church despis'd and revil'd, tho' it renounced every Doctrine that is not agreeable to ye Holy Scriptures, or is not contain'd in them.

And I am most sure that the Glory of God and the Interest of the Church of Christ cannot be promoted till this to KATEXON be remov'd, and primitive Xstianity be reviv'd and Apostolic Faith and Worship alone be taught practis'd and establish'd in the Church.

I can safely appeal to God that I have hitherto made the Scriptures and the Xstian Truths contain'd in them the chief (sic) Study of my Life, and by God's Grace will continue to do so; and I have found more Comfort and Satisfaction in the Blessing wch God hath bestow'd on this my Study, than it is possible for any Thing in the World to give me.

I heartily pray that God who hath committed so great a Trust to your Grace may make you an eminent Instrument of promoting his Glory and the Honour Interest and Truth of the Gospel of Christ his Son.

I cou'd with pleasure enlarge on this noble and divine Subject, but I know it is unnecessary to do so to your Grace: nor shou'd I have taken upon me thus freely to communicate my Thoughts to a stranger, but that you have been pleas'd to desire, wch to me is the same as to have commanded it. I doubt not but your Grace will, as you assure me, make a proper Use of them; and I hope by God's Blessing on your Xstian Endeavours they may attain the End propos'd by them. I beg your Grace will esteem me to be Your most dutiful and obedient son and Servant

XI. I give publick Notice of the Sacrament the Sunday before it is administer'd; the Parishioners never send in their Names. I have never refus'd the Sacrament to any One.—

II. There is no Meeting House in the Parish.
III. There is no School in the Parish of any sort whatever.
IV. There is no Alms-House or Hospital or other Endowment, that I ever heard of.
V. My Residence is at Chester as a Minor Canon of the Cathedral Church in that place.
VI. The Curate does not Reside in ye Parish; neither has there ever been in ye memory of man a Minister residing in the Parish; The Church is now supplied by the Revd: Mr Henson, first Master of ye Free School in Nottingham; & I allow him fifteen pounds p Year.
VII. Upon the strictest enquiry I cannot discover any that are not Baptized, or any of competent age Unconfirmed except the Dissenter aforesaid.
VIII. The immortal usage of this Place has been to have Publick Service read but once every Lords day, & that in ye afternoon (the clear Annual profits of ye whole being but thirty three pounds p An:) But since my Residence at Chester I have provided, yt ye Publick Service of ye Church shall be in ye morning of every other Lord’s Day.

In Staunton. 16: Familys: including ye Hall, Parsonage, and five small Cotts for Poor.

In Alverton. 3: Familys, including one small Cott:

In Flawborough. 7: Familys, including 2 small Cotts.

in all 26: Familys.

II. We have no Meeting of any Sort.

III. We have no Sober Schoolmaster, who in the Parish Church, Daily teaches 20, or 25 children to write and read: but at their Friends expence: he also does teach them their Catechism duly, and they come regularly to Divine Service.

IV. I find only One Small fund for any Charitable or Pious Use. vizt. The Principal Sum of Twenty five pounds, left us by ye Last Will of Mrs Elizabeth Sherwin; about 15: years ago. The Interest of which money is laid out in Bread for the Poor of Staunton at certain times, as Mr Charlton Ld of ye Mannour, & ye Rector, shall direct & Distribute: and I do not apprehend there is now, or has yet been, any mismanagement, or misapplication hereof.

V. I Do Reside personally in my Parsonage House, and my Annual Expenses Therein only, exceed by much my income as Rector. Which particular I humbly mention, because through the unhappy circumstance of an Elder Brother being declared a Lunatick by ye Court of Chancery, and other Difficultys in my Affairs; I am at present, & have been for some time past, obliged to take many tedious and expensive journeys; that occasion my much more frequent absence from my Parish, than is consistent with what can be called strict & constant Residence. Form: but I have not given Your Grace any trouble by application for the same indulgence, because I do every day expect, these causes for my frequent absence, will be Removed.

VI. I have a Residing Curate. He is Master of Arts, and Fellow of Trinity College in Cambridge. I allow him Thirty five pounds a Year. He was Examined and Licensed by my Late Ld Archbishop.

VII. I Believe all my Parishioners are Baptized, and at this Your Grace’s Primary Visitation & Confirmation, I had 36 confirmed, and I think none now remain of competence age & knowledge that are not confirmed; Excepting only 2, who could not break through the press,* but will again offer themselves, the first Opportunity.

VIII. Divine Service is performed in my Parish Church every Lords Day, and other Principal Holy Days in the morning, and at Flawborough Chappell, in ye Afternoon. And there being a Chappel at Staunton, which belongs to a Different Parish in a Different Hundred and Deannya of Bingham, with its own Different Minister, who Dwells not half a Mile off; and who usually officiates every other Lords Day in my Church, because it conveniently admits the congregations of both Parishes, from this occasion it happens, that every other Lords Day there is in my said Parish Church Divine Service both forenoon and afternoon.

IX. The Younger Sort of children Servants come to Me during Lent only. As is the custom time out of mind to be publicly instructed in their Catechism in the Parish Church. But before they offer themselves to be confirmed, I do also, in Private, at my own house, examine them Separately; and advise them and instruct them as well as I can.

X. The Sacrament of the Lords Supper is administered by Me, 4 times a Year in my Parish Church, & 4 times a Year in Flawborough Chapel. We are in the Parish 75. Communicants, whereof communicated last Easter, 48 In the Parish Church, and 12 in Flawborough Chapel, the Times are, the Three Great Festivals, and the first Sunday after Harvest. The Minister of Staunton Chapel does also administer the Sacrament to his Parishioners in my Church 4 times a Year. viz: the 4 days that I administer at Flawborough.

XI. I Do give open and Timely Warning, as in the Rubrick before the Communion. It is not usual with our Parishioners who propose to Communicate, to send in their names beforehand. And indeed we are happy enough to have a very Sober and

* This illustrates, quite artlessly, the scandalous conditions under which Confirmation was sometimes given, when it was administered only at the Episcopal Visitations, which were, nominally, triennial. May it please Your Grace

Having truly answered your Questions, I am now in obedience to Your desire to declare my opinion as to these last Articles, which I do with the Fidelity I owe Your Grace; and Protest I have not met with any particular difficulties in the discharge of my Duty; neither observed any defects in ye present Canons or Discipline of the Church; nor discovered any abuse of Power in the Ecclesiastical officers.

And I think the Glory of God will be best promoted, & the Honour & Interest of our Establish'd Church best secured, and the Government of This Diocese best ordered; by a Continuance of the same Comprehensive, Gentle, & Desirable Temper in the Execution of our Laws, as there is in the Spirit of them, as they are now Framed under our present Happy Constitution.

150. Strelley, Nottingham.

I. I have Forty Three Families in my Parish; There is One Family of Presbyterian Dissenter.

II. I have no Meeting-house of any Denomination.

III. There is no Publick or Charity School, other than what has been this Year erected by the present Subscription of Two private persons for the Immediate Support of a poor Widow; who teaches Twelve Children to read, & is obliged to Catechise 3em twice in the Week.

IV. There is no Almshouse, Hospital, or any other Charitable Endowment; No Benefactions to Church or Poor.

V. I do constantly & personally reside in my Parsonage-house.

VI. I have no Curate.

VII. I believe there are none in my Parish above a Month old that are Unbaptized: Tho’ I apprehend there may be two o (sic) three of Competent age that are Unconfirmed, who not having opportunity for that purpose, have yet received ye Sacrament.

VIII. The Publick Service is performed on Some particular Holydays, & should on all if I could procure any to attend; It is duly read once every Sunday in my Church at Strelley, & once Every Sunday at my Church at Bilborough & so alternately. If either had been a Sufficient Maintenance, I wd not have accepted Both; Tho they have been immemorially Served in this manner, & been under the Same Patronage.

IX. I Catechize from Easter to Michaelmas, ye Children generally following from Church to Church. The Parishioners are too remiss, but wth Constant Importunity I mostly prevail to have have (sic) yir Children sent to be Catechized.

X. The Sacrament of the Lords Supper is administered in my Church of Strelley four times in the Year; The Number of Communicants is about Fifty, Thirty Usually receive, Tho’ but Twenty at Easter last.

XI. I always give a Weeks notice at least of the Sacrament; The Parishioners do not Send in their names as required; I never as I remember refus’d the Sacrament to any; tho a Presbyterian Dissenter once came into Church to observe the method of Administration; I sent the Clerk to desire her to Communicate or depart; She departed for yt time; but communicated afterwards for the most part as long as she Lived; & Commonly attended ye Service of ye Church.

IV. No Almshouse, Hospital or other Charitable Endowment; no Lands or Tenements left for the Repair of the Church; or to any other pious Use.
V. I do not reside Personally upon my Care My Residence is at Risley in ye County of Derby wch is but one Mile distant from it and where I am obliged to Residence.

VI. I have no Residing Curate.

VII. I know of None.

VIII. Publick Service is duly performed Once upon the Lords Day, morning and Afternoon alternately every third Sunday exceptd and the same at Risley where I reside and the Reason why it cannot be oftner is because the Benefice is so small not exceeding twelve Pounds p Anni, Surplus Fees Included.

IX. I Catechise in Lent nor are the Children or Servts negligent in coming.

X. I administer the Sacramt of ye Lords Supper four Times in the Year. there is about an Hundred Communicants in the Parish and about forty usually receive each Time, there was about yt Number last Easter.

XI. I always give open and timely Warning of the Sacrament before it is administred, But the Parishioners have not been accostomed (sic) to send in yr Names. I have had no Reason to refuse the Sacramt to any One.

152. Sutton in Ashfield,

II. There is one Meeting-House, wch I am told is licensed* Both Denominations content themselves with one House & one Teacher. They usually assemble twice three Sundays in the Month (but for this Year or more, wch their Teacher has spent mostly in collecting Money for a new Meeting-House now erecting) Most of 'em usually come to Church; And sometimes their Teacher. In what Numbers they assemble, I cannot tel, several come from neighboring Towns, One Samuel Wilson is their Teacher.

III. There is no public Building for a Schole, but Several teach to read & write in yr own Houses, along with other Employes. There are two Closes left, now let for fifty Shillings a Year.

* See Appendix B.

to put poor Children to Schole. They are now under ye Direction of three Men, two of wmn. are Dissenters, the other an half-one, & ye Master of ye Children an half one. I believe That upon a Vacancy, Preference is given to Children of dissenting Parents, that little Care is taken to principle ye rest in ye Xn Rel: according to ye Doctrine of our established Church, or to bring 'em to Church as ye Canon requires

IV. All that falls under this Article, is, the Yearly Interest of 24/- to the Poor, & two Coats: The Church-Wardens & Overseers for ye Poor are appointed by the several Donors to distribute. I have heard of no Frauds or abuses.

V. I do not reside. Parsonage-House there is None. I reside at Pleasly in the County of Derby, Curate there. The Reason of Non-Residence is the Smallnes of the Salary; the certain Value is no more than 13l: 6s: 8d, wch with four pounds, the Lay Rector, the Duke of Devonshire, gives during Pleasure, is the whole.

VI. [Blank].

VII. Of the first Sort. None. Of the Second, great Numbers. Of this I am satisfied, There are none confirmed, but who are now above 20 Years old.

VIII. Public Service is performed once every Lord’s Day in the Afternoon. On Sacrament Days in the Morning. The Reason why not twice, is want of Maintenance.

IX. I catechize on seven or eight Lord’s Days, when the Days are long; My Parishioners send none but very small Children, such as can be just taught to repeat the Catechism.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper is administer’d once at each of ye three following Festivals, Christmas, Easter, & Whitson tide. The Number of Persons above sixteen 706, whereas deduct 137 Dissenters, & hence rest 569. Scarce ever above forty receive at one time, sometimes not twenty; At Easter last not full thirty.

XI. I alway read one of Exhortations the preceding Sunday. My Parishioners do not send in their Names. I have never refused any one.

Among the Defects of Church Discipline, I note, The admitting Dissenting Church Wardens, One of our present Church Wardens is a Dissenter, the other an half one; Hence it frequently happens, that we have not a Church-Warden at Church; Our Church Steeple is in a bad Condition for Want of pointing, I have been told ye Sun shines thro’ in several places between ye Stones. My Dissenting Church Warden tells Me, he has had the Undertaker of their new Meeting-House to view it, who says ‘twil be better to defer it ‘til ye rest of the Lime falls out, that ye New may enter better!’ We have commonly a Dissenter thrust into yt Office here, for himself, or somebody else.

I. To the Chappell at Stockwith there belongeth no Cure of Souls it being chiefly intended by the Donor for the Benefit of the Hospital thereto adjoyning
II. There is no Meeting House in Stockwith
III. The Founder of the Chappell endowed a Charity School with Five Pounds a year for teaching Ten poor Children belonging to the Hospital (if so many) and they are duly instructed in the Church Catechism (sic) both at School & Chappell
IV. We have no Lands, nor any other Provision made for the Repairs of the Chappell. The Founder devised an Estate upwards of Thirty Pounds a Year for the Maintenance of such poor People as he directed shd. be placed in the Hospital. The Management of which being in the Hands of Trustees, has been hitherto misapplied. Of which I beg Leave to give your Grace a fuller Account hereunto annexed.
V. I live in the House belonging to the Chappell

XI. I give Warning for the Administration of the Sacrament the Sunday before. No Persons give in their Names to me, because no such Custom prevails with us, nor do any belong to me but the Inhabitants of the Hospital.

ROBT PINDAR Minister at West Stockwith.

May it please Your Grace
Your Grace having enjoyn'd me to give free and faithful
Answers to your Questions, I think myself in Duty bound to give you the utmost Satisfaction I am able. And therefore I beg Leave to inform your Grace That William Huntington late of West-Stowich Shipwright by his last Will and Testament dated February 14 1714 devised £740 for the building a Chappell and Ten small Alms Houses in his Ship Yard and endowed the said Houses with upwards of Thirty Pounds a Year in Land for the Support of Ten poor Ship Carpenter's or Sailer's Widows That the said Chappell and Hospital were built and the Chappell consecrated in the Year 1722 and the Estates belonging to them invested in the Hands of Trustees appointed for that Purpose That a Minister be elected at that Time to officiate in the Chappell did enter immediately to the Salary appointed for him, but no Widows were then put into the Alms Houses nor have any received any Benefit from the Charity. After some Time indeed Two or Three Widows were placed in the Alms Houses and lived there several Years but they never received any Part of the Endowment And the Rents and Profits of the Poor's Estate have all along been received by the Trustees without Account That in the Year 1738 which was about Two Years after I was nominated Minister the Inhabitants agreed to file a Bill in Chancery against the Trustees and insisted that I should join in the said Bill to bring the Trustees to Account which Bill being then filed is now depending before the Lord Chancellor and has cost us a great Sum of Money out of our own Pockets, but that the Trustees make Use of the Charity Money for their defraying their Charges thereby prolonging the Cause and hoping to tire out those who bear their Expenses themselves. This, may it please your Grace, is the Truth of the Case, as near as I can state it, and it is great Pity the Benefaction shou'd be so much abused. And we humbly hope your Grace will take it into Consideration. Since the Chappell was consecrated the Inhabitants of West-Stowich have, for the most Part, brought their Children to be baptised at the Chappell, the Mother Church being Two Miles distant, and in Winter the Roads almost impassable. And in my Predecessor's Time a Copy of his private Register of such Children as were baptised in the Chappell was entered in the Parish Register, the Vicar of the Parish receiving his usual Fees, but of late Years (the I have a Licence from the Dean and Chapter to do that and all other Ecclesiastical Duty in the Chappell and the Vicar of the Parish has constantly been paid his Fees) yet he has refused to admit into the Parish Register a Copy of my private Register of such Children as have been baptised by me in the Chappell to the great Discontent of the Inhabitants who's Children must either want the Benefit of a Register or be carried in Winter Time Two Miles in Roads almost impassable to be baptised. For which Reason I have taken the Freedom to lay this Matter before your Grace, and for the sake of the Inhabitants of West-Stowich shou'd be very glad that either the Copy of my private Register shou'd be entered in the Parish Register, or that your Grace's Officers wou'd accept it without Fees as we have no Fund—belonging to the Chappell for the defraying that or any other Charges.

I am with all due Respect Your Grace's most obedient Son and Servant

190. Normanton upon Soar, Bingham.

I. My Lord,
There are at present three and Thirty Families in this Parish; one of which are of that Sort of Dissenters who are commonly called Anabaptists.
II. There is no Meeting House in this Parish,
III. We have not any publick or Charity School: A Woman teaches the Children to read; She causes them to learn the Church Catechism, and brings them to Church, as the Canon requires.
IV. There is not in this Parish any Alms-House, Hospital, or other Charitable Endowment; nor have any Lands or Tenements been left for the Repair of the Church; or to any other pious Use.
V. I reside personally upon the Cure, and in the Parsonage House.
VI. I have no Curate.
VII. I do not know that any unbaptized persons come to Church in this parish; and as for those who though they had been Baptized, and were of a competent Age, had never been confirmed, I did, in Conformity to Your Grace’s Command bring as many of them as I could to the late Confirmation.
VIII. The publick Service is performed in this Church twice every Lord’s-Day, and at the Request of some of the parishioners, who had been used to much preaching, I preach twice every Sunday, except only those times of the Year, when instead of the Afternoon Sermon I give them a Lecture upon the Catechism; we have also Prayers on Wednesdays and Fridays, and upon the Fasts and Festivals.

IX. I have several Times exhorted the Parishioners often to send their Children and Servants to be Catechiz'd but found that it was not easy to persuade them to do it, because they had been accustomed to be so instructed only in the Time of Lent, then they constantly say their Catechism at Church, and I explain it them, which Exercise I usually continue some time after the Season of Lent is expired.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administer'd in this Church six times in the Year. There are ninety persons in this Parish of an Age fit to communicate; of these about sixty receive, some at one time some at another; particularly, Thirty communicated at Easter last.

XI. I give Warning of the Sacrament in such manner as the Rubrick directs; but whenever I have endeavour'd to persuade the people to send in their Names as they are required, have always found them very averse to it, allying that it was never customary with them so to do. I never refused the Sacrament (sic) to any. If any thing occurs, I shall not fail either to write, or to beg the Honour of waiting on Your Grace in order to communicate it.

191. Saint Mary's in Nottingham, Nottingham.

I. I can't with any Certainty say what Number of Families there is in the Parish of St. Mary in Nottingham. It is generally supposed there are at least ten thousand Parishioners. Of these I believe one fourth part are Dissenters of different Denominations. The greatest part of them are Presbyterians and Independents. There are some Anabaptists and Quakers; and very few Papists, I believe not more than eight or ten.

II. The Presbyterians have one licens'd Meeting House in my Parish*, where they assemble twice every Sunday, in considerable Numbers. I have heard there are generally about four or five hundred. There is a Lecture also once in a fortnight on Thursday. The Name of the present Teacher is—Eaton, Doctor of Divinity of one of the Universities in Scotland. He has an Assistant whose name is Harropp.

* See Appendix B.

There has lately been another House licens'd for the Anabaptists, where they assemble twice every Sunday in small Numbers. The name of the Teacher is—Morley. He teaches a small School and is a Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital. He was a Follower of the Methodists, and has lately set up as an Anabaptist Teacher.

III. There is a free Grammar School in this Parish endow'd with a yearly Salary of £30 and a House for the Master, and £30 for the Usher. There is also a Charity School, in which 60 poor Children are taught and clothed by voluntary Contributions. I believe due Care is taken in both these Schools to instruct the Scholars in the Principles of the Christian Religion according to the Doctrine of the Church of England; and to bring them duly to Church.

IV. There are several Alms-Houses in this Parish; some of them are under the Direction of the Corporation, and some of private Persons, viz: the Duke of Kingston, Mr. Gregory, Mr. Plumptre, Mr. Sherwin, the Church-Wardens and others. Some few Lands and Tenements have been left for the Repair of the Church, the Rents of which are receiv'd and accounted for by the Church-Wardens. I do not know of any Abuses or Frauds committed in the Management of any of these charitable Endowments.

V. I do reside personally upon my Cure and in my Vicarage House; and I likewise keep an Assistant Curate.

VI. I have an Assistant Curate who resides in the Parish. I allow Him forty Pounds a year.

VII. I do not know of any who come to Church in my Parish that are not baptized. I believe there are many who were baptized by Dissenters, and now come to Church, who are not Confirmed.

VIII. Publick Service is read in my Church twice every Day.

IX. I catechise in this Church every Sunday, Tuesday, and Thursday during the season of Lent. The Parishioners send many of their Children and Servants who have not learn'd their Catechism, to be instructed by me.

X. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administer'd in my Church on the first Sunday in every Month, and also on Good Friday, on Easter Sunday at six o'clock in the Morning and at Noon, on Whitsunday and on Christmas Day. I can't with any Certainty say what Number of Communicants there is in this Parish. About 160 or 180 usually receive. At the Easter Sacraments this Year about 800 receiv'd.

XI. I do give open and timely Warning of the Sacrament before it is administered. It has not been customary for the Parishioners to send in their Names to the Minister. I have not refused the Sacrament to any one.

APPENDIX A.—ROMAN CATHOLICS.

By S. L. Ollard.

Prefatory Note.

This Appendix endeavours to illustrate, and where necessary to supplement, the information about Roman Catholics given in these Returns. To have printed as foot-notes to the text the facts collected here would have burdened unduly the pages of these volumes and would have failed to give such a general view as is attempted here. It is at best an outline, yet the references to the various sources may help some future historian to fill in the picture. The Appendix is arranged as follows:—

1. A sketch of the position of the Roman Catholics in the diocese in 1743.

2. A List of the Roman Catholic priests named in the Returns.

3. A Note on each parish (arranged alphabetically) where there was either a chapel, or a group of Roman Catholics dependent upon a neighbouring chapel and priest. The Notes correct silently mistakes about Roman Catholic chaplains made in the footnotes I attached to the text of the Returns.

For the loan of Mss. or books or for answers to particular inquiries I return my grateful thanks to His Grace the Archbishop of York, His Grace the Archbishop of Liverpool and his Secretary the Rev. T. Adamson; the Right Rev. Abbot Cummins, O.S.B.; Dom. H. K. Byrne, O.S.B., Librarian at Ampleforth Abbey; the Rev. William Godfrey, Librarian of S. Cuthbert’s College, Ushaw; the Rev. Walter Gumbley, O.P., F.R.Hist.Soc.; the Right Rev. Mgr. Day, O.B.E., D.S.O., Rector of Oscott College; Dr. A. Herbert, Archivist to the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster; the Right Rev. Mgr. Hawsell, Secretary to the Bishop of Leeds; the Rev. H. C. Cradock; the Lady Eveline Maude; Mrs. Tempest, of Tong; Mr. John Baker, of Ollerton; the President of our Society, Colonel John Parker, C.B., F.S.A., and particularly to Mr. R. C. Wilton, Secretary of the Catholic Record Society.

Even with so much help this Appendix could not have been compiled without a library in the background. Fortunately for me the Central Public Library at Hull is only eighteen miles away and to the Chief Librarian of Hull, Mr. W. H. Bagguley, F.L.A. and to his assistant, Mr. J. G. Sleight who is in charge of the Reference Library I owe very much for their generous kindness.

APPENDIX A.

The principal authorities I have used are:—

A. Mss. 1. A List of the Clergy in his District made by Dr. Dickson, Bishop of Malla and Vicar Apostolic of the Northern District, 1741. The Bishop kept the List up to date till his death in 1752. It is a 12mo volume in brown calf; on some of the blank pages at the end are added in a very modern hand lists of confirmation tours in the Northern District undertaken by Bishop Petre, Bishop Dickson’s successor, between 1753 and 1758. These additions are taken from a Ms. in the archives of the Bishop of Leeds. Bishop Dickson’s List is among the archives of the Archbishop of Liverpool. It is usually cited below as the 1741 List.

2. A collection of Returns, letters, etc. relating to Roman Catholics 1723-1745; among the archives of the Archbishop of York at Bishopthorpe. It is cited below as Bishopthorpe Mss. H. 2. 10.

declared himself a Catholic." The statement of the Internuncio was much exaggerated. Mr. Bridges held no "rich prebend," merely the vicarage of Kippax the annual value of which in Eton's Liber Valorum (3rd ed. 1728) was £34 16s. 4d. Nor had Bishop Williams, as he assured Sir Edward Gascoigne, anything to do with Mr. Bridges' reception. Sir Edward Gascoigne (see Aberford, No. 1 below) was concerned in the affair because Bishop Williams resided on his estate at Huddleston Hall, and on hearing the reports Sir Edward had at once interviewed the Bishop and sent his statement to his friend Arthur, 6th Lord Irwin of Temple Newsam, who sent it to the Archbishop. The Archbishop had been sufficiently stirred to order a Return of the Papists from the parishes in the diocese and was making some show of being about to enforce the penal laws, even to the extent of summoning Sir Edward Gascoigne to answer a charge of not attending his parish church. But these measures provoked remonstrances from such important Yorkshire peers as Lord Carlisle, Lord Malton, and Lord Irwin, so that his Grace explained rather elaborately in a letter to the last "I desire our freind [sic] Sir Edward Gascoigne may be in no pain about my Intention in the Summons he has receiv'd, because I rely on his word that He has had no hand in promoting that grievous [sic] offence which the late Vicar of Kippax has given occasion to ... It is not my Intention to break in upon ye tacit Connivance wch ye Roman Catholics by His Majesties great Lenity enjoy, at present, in the private exercise of their Religion. Nor is it my Principle (as by my Conduct it has ever appeared) to be grievous to anyone who behaves quietly and peaceably under ye Establish'd Government, on the account of His Opinions merely Religious." The Archbishop went on to explain that he felt obliged to inquire into the alleged large increase of Roman Catholics, but he concluded, "This is what I desire you, My Good Lord, to communicate to our good freind, Sir Edward Gascoigne, for whom I have a particular esteem, wch he may depend upon himself and is at liberty also to communicate to any Person of Honour who may have been alike desirous to know the true Intention of my Good Ld."

The story in its exaggerated form has found a place in the Dictionary of National Biography (xxi, 485, s.v. Williams, Thomas). The true facts are stated by Fr. Raymond Palmer, O.P. in his life of Bishop Williams in Merry England (Decr., 1887) No. 56 p. 489. All that happened to the Bishop was that he withdrew from Huddleston Hall to Mr. Marmaduke Tunstall's at Wycliffe (where his successor made his headquarters) and returned—after some months. No legal proceedings were taken against him. But both in

APPENDIX A.
1733 and again in 1735 at the annual Visitations of the Archdeacons, the Archbishop was concerned to know the exact number of Roman Catholics in the diocese. The answers to these enquiries as well as the answers to a like enquiry by Archbishop Sharp in 1706 (when a Jacobite rising was feared) exist, and their figures are given in the notes on the parishes below. What exactly the figures represent is not very clear; probably in 1706 they represent householders, in 1733 families, in 1735 persons of over 13 years of age. The various missions fall into two groups: missions on the estate of a Roman Catholic landowner and missions which had a more democratic basis, being supported by a larger number of less important folk. On these last the hand of the authorities fell most heavily in 1745. The great majority of the missions were those of the aristocratic class, thus the Duke of Norfolk supported at least three, while Lord Fairfax of Gilling, Lord Fauconberg, Lord Langdale, Lady Petre, Sir Edward Gascoigne, Sir Marmaduke Constable, and Sir Walter Vavasour, were each responsible for at least one chapel and priest, and made their influence felt in their several districts. Below them in rank but hardly less important in fact, was the considerable group of squires, headed by Mr. Constable, Lord Paramount of Holderness and including the heads of such families as the Aynes, the Crathornes, the Meynells, the Cholmeleys, the Tempests of Broughton, the Plomptons and the Watertons, in Yorkshire alone. They supplied the English colleges and convents in Flanders and elsewhere not only with funds but with loyal and devoted members, as the records now printed show. The severity of the strain upon their resources is made plain by the number of families which ended in the male line at, or soon after, the date of these Returns; the Fairfaxes of Gilling, the Langdales, the Crathornes, the Plomptons, and the Fauconbergs all ceased in the direct male line before 1800 while the Gascoignes are a like instance though they conformed to the English Church before the end.

The facts below show part of the material upon which Prince Charles Edward possibly relied when he unfurled the standard at Glenfinnan in 1745. None of the Yorkshire Roman Catholic noblemen joined him; the policy of toleration which these Returns display had been too successful. So long as they were allowed to practice their religion unmolested, the Roman Catholics of the diocese were, with a very few exceptions, unwilling to jeopardise the security they had won.

An interesting comparison, for which facts are not wanting, could be drawn between the English clergy of these Returns and their Roman Catholic brethren.

The Roman Catholic clergy were a more carefully trained body and as a whole they seem to have been drawn from old and gentle families. More than that, at least one of them, an old Benedictine in Aberford parish, wrote a devotional book A Pious Monitor of the Divine Presence, while one of the squires named in the Returns, Mr. Tempest, published in explanation and defence of his position, a Religio Laici. The spiritual tone of the English Church, at this time was not favourable to such a temper; its clergy as a whole seem more concerned with the refusal of the Quakers to pay tithes or the rise of the Methodists. From such anxieties the Roman Catholic clergy were free. Their records here exhibit them as a body of men who studied to be quiet, and were content to spend long years in the service of small groups of country folk. The Religious usually retired to die at the houses abroad in which they had found their vocations and begun their training, Watten, Lambspring, Dieulouard, Liége, Douay or Bornhem; the secular clergy commonly died at their missions in England. Most of these clergy, secular and Religious, died “full of years,” a witness, presumably, to the simplicity and regularity of their lives. If they were not distinguished in literature or in scholarship these Roman Catholic clergy seem to have been strong in their spiritual integrity, they neither caused scandal nor lapse from their allegiance; very occasionally a priest seems to have gone out of his mind, which, considering the loneliness and other conditions, is not to be wondered at. At their best these priests appear to have been of the type known as “Challoner Catholics,” dutiful and reserved; to their critics they appeared, no doubt, like their Anglican brethren, rather slow and unenterprising. In 1743, Roman Catholics were not in evidence in the towns save in York and Hexham; their strength lay in the country districts. That position was to be reversed in the course of the next hundred years.

One fact these Returns make crystal clear: the English clergy were not anxious to call attention to their Roman Catholic brethren. In answer to Archbishop Herring’s searching questions, the parochial clergy for the most part preserve a very discreet silence. There are but three exceptions: at Brandsby (i, 82 seq.) and at Broughton-in-Air, (ii, 54) where the incumbents are at odds with their Roman Catholic squire over tithe and the like, and at Allendale (iii, 244 seq.) where the Curate complains that a Steward of the Lead mines is “industrious to disperse popish books.” For the rest the clergy in this matter seem usually to have put the telescope to their blind eye, consequently the names of but twelve Roman Catholic “Teachers” are reported to the Archbishop, though in fact there were at least 48 Roman Catholic priests then at work in the diocese. These priests were organized under various divisions. In 1688 England had been divided for Roman Catholics into four Districts, Northern, Midland, London, and Western, each ruled by a Bishop with the title of Vicar Apostolic. The diocese of York in 1743 included parts of two such Districts: Yorkshire and Hexhamshire were in the Northern, Nottinghamshire was in the Midland District. The Vicar Apostolic of the Northern District in 1743 was Dr. Edward Dicconson (1670-1752), a gentleman of old family in Lancashire, who had held important offices at Douay and had been consecrated Bishop of Mâle in partibus infidelium by the Bishop of Ghent on 19 March, 1740. His post direction was to "Wyclif, near Greta Bridge, Yorkshire" where he was known as "Mr. Eaton" and was the guest of Mr. Tunstal, but he lived also on his own estate at Finch Mill near Standish, Lancashire. Dr. Dicconson was over 70 when he was consecrated, but his Ms. Clergy List and his letters to his Yorkshire clergy shew him a careful and able administrator. He has found a place in the Dictionary of National Biography. Bishop Dicconson's name does not appear in these Returns. Nor does that of the Vicar Apostolic of the Midland District, Dr. John Talbot Stonor (1678-1756) who, born of the ancient family of Stonor of Stonor in Oxfordshire, and having been trained at Douay and graduated at Paris, was consecrated Bishop of Thespieæ in partibus, apparently at Paris, between July and September 1716. The fact that neither the date or place of this Bishop's consecration nor the name of his consecrator seem to be certainly known illustrates the secrecy with which the affairs of the English Roman Catholics had then to be preserved. Bishop Stonor, an able and devoted man and "an aristocrat of the old school" resided at Stonor Park, Nettlebed, Oxfordshire. These two Bishops were concerned chiefly with the secular clergy, who had been trained, for the most part, at Douay, though among them were priests who came from the English colleges at Rome and Lisbon and Valladolid. The change from Rome to Holderness, and from Valladolid and Lisbon to the moors of the North Riding must have been sharp.

Apart from the secular clergy there were at work in the diocese at this time members of various Religious Orders: Benedictines, Franciscans, Dominicans, Jesuits, and one Carmelite, all of whom had their separate territorial organisations under their respective Superiors, and their own central houses overseas.

The Fathers of the Order of S. Benedict had been divided in England since 1633 into two Provinces of Canterbury and York each under its own Prior-Provincial. The boundaries were practically the same as those of the Anglican Provinces in 1743, save that Derbyshire, Lincolnshire and Scotland were included in the Northern. The Order had its monasteries at Douay (1605), Paris (1615), Lambesc in Westphalia (1644) and Dieulouard in Lorraine (1668).

The Franciscans in the diocese were under two Guardianates: that of S. Thomas the Martyr which comprised Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Lancashire, and Rutland, and that of S. Francis with a Cross in his Hand which had its centre at Newcastle and included Hexhamshire. There seem to have been no Franciscans in Nottinghamshire. The Franciscans of the English Province had their centre abroad at Douay, their only regular House, but several were often resident at Gravelines as chaplains to the Franciscan Sisters there.

The Dominicans were organized throughout England simply as one Province under a Provincial Prior. Archbishop Herring would no doubt have been startled to learn that the Provincial Prior of the English Dominicans in 1743 was living within thirty miles of Bishopthorpe, at Middleton Hall near Leeds. The English Dominicans had their mother house at Bornhem in Flanders, and a college of S. Thomas Aquinas at the University of Louvain.

The Society of Jesus, which had more priests at work in the diocese than the other Religious in 1743, was organized more elaborately. Yorkshire was in its Residence of S. Michael, Nottinghamshire was part of its College of the Immaculate Conception, while Hexhamshire was within its College of S. John the Evangelist. The Jesuits of the English Province had three houses across the Channel viz. Watten in Belgium (for the novitiate), Liége for theology and the higher studies, and Ghent for the students of the third year's probation.

That the separate jurisdictions of the Vicars Apostolic and of the Superiors of the Religious Orders would be sure to overlap and clash is evident; in fact considerable friction between the secular and the regular clergy had arisen in England and the question was in process of being settled at Rome at the time of this Visitation, though the decision did not reach England until 1748. The award was in favour of the Vicars Apostolic. The regulars continued the struggle. Finally in 1753 Benedict XIV "ended the long strife once for all in a terse and statesmanlike decision in favour of the Vicars Apostolic, i.e. the Bishops, and thus the question was set at rest." This grave dissension is not reflected in any notice of the Roman Catholics here, but some of the clergy who are mentioned here were much concerned in it.

1 For an excellent account of this see Burton, op. cit. i, 245-324.
2. — List of Priests mentioned in the Returns.

In the Returns the following priests are mentioned by name—

1. Mr. Brown. (Halifax, ii, 32 above). The Vicar of Halifax states that this priest came once a month from “Mr. Townley’s in Lancashire.” Possibly he is the Rev. James Brown who is noted in the List of 17411 as stationed at Burscough in the Derby Hundred of Lancashire. The chaplains at Townley in that List are first Dr. G. Kendall and later Mr. John Harrison. Another secular priest, also James Brown is noted in that List as having been stationed at Crotchbone, but he had left by 24 February, 1742 when the Rev. William Anderson succeeded him. See Crotchbone, No. 18 and Halifax, No. 25 in the List of Parishes below.

2. Mr. Busby. (Colston Bassett, iv, 28). This is Thomas Busby, S.J., known sometimes as Thomas Roberts, who, born in 1656 entered the Society of Jesus, 1675 and was ordained priest 18 Dec., 1683. From 1701 for many years, with occasional intervals, he was Rector of the College of the Immaculate Conception which had its headquarters at Spink Hill, Derbyshire and Holbeck Hall, Notts. (See Norton Cuckney No. 40 below). The College was a small one having at this time only 4 Fathers. Fr. Busby was its Rector again from 1746-1748. He was reckoned an admirable Missioner and Superior. He died at Liège, 25 April, 1750 aged 94. Foley, v. 472, 475; vii, 108. C.R.S., xii, 178n.

3. Mr. Butler. (Mitton, ii, 175). This was Peter Seel, O.D.C., al. Butler, probably a Seel of Liverpool, his mother being one of the Butlers of Rawcliffe. He was born in 1705 and in due course joined the Order of the Discalced Carmelites, his name in religion being Fr. Peter Mary of Saint Theresa. From 1740 to 1752 Fr. Seel was chaplain at Stonyhurst in the service of the Duchess Dowager of Norfolk. See Dr. B. Zimmerman, Carmel in England (Lond. 1899) where “Rawcliffe” is spelt “Ratcliffe.”

4. Peter Davis. (Broughton, i, 54). Peter Davis, S.J., entered the Society in 1711, and served in Yorkshire, then in Maryland, and then in Hampshire, and in 1740 was in Yorkshire again. He died at the house of his Order at Watten in 1759 aged 67. C.R.S., xiii, 171n. and Foley, vii, 197.

5. Mr. Hutchinson. (Spofforth, iii, 41). Dom Anthony Cuthbert Hutchinson, O.S.B. was born in Yorkshire and professed at S. Gregory’s, Douay 21 Sept., 1723. Having had charge of a school at Redmarley, Glos., 1733, he was transferred to the Northern Province and was chaplain at Plompton Hall 1740-1745, and then at Middleton Lodge (Ilkley) 1745-1759. He died at Aberford 2 July, 1760. Diet. p. 102.

1. The Ms. Clergy List of the priests working in the Northern District drawn up by Bishop Dicconson in 1741, now preserved in the Archives of the Archdiocese of Liverpool.

6. Mr. Liddell. (Egton Chapel, i, 186). Thomas Liddell educated at the English College at Lisbon was probably the son of William Liddell of Wycliffe, gent. Ordained priest at Lisbon 21 Jan., 1742, he was sent to the English Mission 16 Jan., 1743, and stationed at Egton, with the Rev. Monox Hervey al. John Rivett, for whom see below. Here his Jacobite activities caused trouble with the Government and in November, 1745 he was removed by the Vicar Apostolic. The college at Lisbon seems to have been enthusiastically Jacobite, for another Lisbonian in the diocese, the Rev. Martin Hounshill, chaplain at Roundhay, a contemporary and no doubt a friend of Mr. Liddell1 was arrested on 18 November, 1745 (see Barwick in Elmet, No. 5 below). Mr. Liddell died at Liverpool 12 May, 1775.

7. Mr. Henry Mayor. (Bishop Thornton Chapel, iii, 233, 4. Middlemoor Chapel, iii, 236). This priest, who is twice named, was the Rev. Henry Mair (1714-1775) a member of the old family whose seat was at Hartburns, co. Durham. Their pedigree is in Foley, v, 654. Three of his brothers were priests, William, a secular who was Bishop Dicconson’s Vicar General and was consecrated Bishop of Gna in paribus, 1767, and Peter and Christopher both Jesuits. Fr. Peter Mair is mentioned below. Henry Mair entered Douay in 1725, was ordained priest there 29 May, 1738 and came to assist the Rev. James Skelton at Raventofts. Later he moved to Clifton-Tees where he died 14 Dec., 1775 aged 61. Both Mr. Mair and Mr. Skelton had on 20 Feb., 1748 “been sometime in Ripon Gaol, they were committed upon suspicion of holding correspondence with the King’s enemies & being papist priests.” Letter to Abp. Herring. Bishopthorpe Miss., H.2, 10. Foley, v, 656. C.R.S., iv, 249; xiii, 233; xxvii, 130n etc.

8. Mr. Mayer (Newton-on-Use, ii, 199). The priest referred to is, apparently, the Rev. Peter Mair, S.J., an elder brother of the Rev. Henry Mair above, born in 1707, entered the Society in 1726 and who was, in 1741, chaplain to the Mores at Barnbow, and then “to Mrs. More at York.” This was probably the widow of Thomas More, Esq., who had died in 1739. The priest responsible for this mission (at Linton), the Rev. Thomas Daniel was moved in 1742 to York, and served Linton from there. It would seem, from this Return, that Mr. Daniel was helped by other priests in York and that Fr. Mair occasionally undertook the duty at this time. Fr. Mair became later chaplain at the Bar convent, York and was drowned while bathing in the Ouse 29 June, 1763 aged 63 (according to J. S. Hansom but according to Foley, s6). Fr. Peter Mair was Superior of the District at the time of his death. Foley, v, 655, 6. 702 C.R.S. iv, 376. Bp. Dicconson’s Ms. List.

9. Mr. Meynhill (Crofton, i, 127). James Meynell, born in Yorkshire 4 May 1669, was possibly a member of the ancient family of Meynell of North Kilvington, though his name does not appear in their pedigree in Foley v, 722. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1708, and having for many years served the mission at Pontefract died there 16 Dec., 1746 aged 87. Foley v, 723, vii, 504. C.R.S. xiii, 185m.

10. Mr. John Rivett (Lothhouse, ii, 155, Lythe, ii, 157). This is the most interesting priest on this list. He was the Rev. Monox Hervey (who for safety took occasionally the name of "John Rivett" or "John Moxon") son of Henry Hervey, of Stoke Ash, Suffolk, gent. and Margaret Rivett his wife, born in 1699; about 1713 the boy became a Roman Catholic. He went first to the English college at Lisbon, and in 1724 was admitted to the English college at Rome. There he was ordained priest on 18 Sept., 1729 by Pope Benedict XIII himself. After working in the Midland District and in London he came to Ughtorpe in Cleveland on 25 May, 1734, and about the end of 1737 he began a school there for the sons of gentlemen. He had ten boys under his care when he was arrested on 11 December, 1745 and conveyed to York Castle. Probably the Jacobite activities of his younger colleague Thomas Liddell (No. 6 above) had stirred the authorities. Mr. Hervey remained a prisoner in York Castle until 2 June, 1747, a period of eighteen months, when he was discharged on his promise to leave Yorkshire. His treatment by the Roman Catholics of Egton when he was endeavouring to seek shelter and avoid arrest inspired him to write "From the Moors in Yorkshire, Good Lord deliver us—Amen." His interesting Register gives a vivid picture of the life of a zealous Roman Catholic missioner in Yorkshire at this period. Mr. Hervey died in London 22 Dec., 1756 aged 87. For Mr. Hervey's pedigree, Life and Register see C.R.S. xiv, 813-896.

11. Mr. Smith (Coxwold, i, 142). Thomas Smith, a secular priest, born 30 July, 1674 in the dio. of Chester, took the college oath at Douay 8 Sept., 1698, and was sent to England 7 March, 1700. In the List of 1741 his is the third name on the list of secular clergy so that he was evidently an old man. He was chaplain at Oulston with Lady Fauconberg i.e., Catherine, wife of Thomas, then Viscount but in 1756 created Earl, Fauconberg. Lord Fauconberg conformed in 1756 to the English Church, but the ladies of the family did not. Mr. Smith is described sometimes as of Angram; which like Oulston is a hamlet of Coxwold. Monox Hervey in his Register (C.R.S. xiv, 341) says "Mr. Thomas Smith was banished" but the incident is not explained. Certainly he died at Oulston, 2 Nov., 1755, being aged 81. C.R.S., xi, 8, xiv, 326, 327, xxviii, 15, 19.

12. Mr. William Tempest (Carlton-juxta-Snaith, i, 139). William Tempest (called evidently by a slip in the 1741 List "Thomas") born in London, November 1683, was trained at Douay and went to England as a priest June, 1711. He returned to Douay for a short time as Prefect of Studies in 1718. He was chaplain at Carlton-juxta-Snaith in 1741 and probably for many years before. He was elected a member of the Chapter in 1748 and died at Carlton 24 Oct., 1766 aged 83. C.R.S., xi, 10, xxviii, 23, 53, 55, etc.

3.—Notes on the Parishes.

More or less considerable groups of Roman Catholics existed in the following parishes, as the Returns usually disclose. But in the great majority of cases considerable reticence is displayed by the incumbents in calling attention to their Roman Catholic parishioners, and especially to the presence of chaplains.

1. Aberford (i, 9). The vicar reports 12 Papist families but passes over the question about unlicensed Meeting Houses rather hurriedly to complain of "Mr. Ingham the Methodist." In fact in this parish were two Roman Catholic centres: Parlington, the seat of Sir Edward Gascoigne, 6th Baronet, who had succeeded his father in 1723 as head of a family that had been staunchly Recusant. He died at Cambrai, 24 May, 1750. Parlington was the Benedictine centre of the Northern Province and two of the Fathers were resident here viz., Dom Edward Dunstan Rogers, O.S.B. profess’d in 1714 who came here from Hazleden in 1731. He was Proctor of the Province 1733-1746 and a Definer of the Province and Cathedral Prior of Norwich 1745-6. He died at Parlington 27 May, 1746. With him as a colleague was Dom Robert Paul Gilmore, O.S.B. profess’d at Lambpring 27 June, 1685 and a little later stationed at Parlington where he died, after nearly 63 years in the Order, 20 Feb., 1748. He was the author of A Pious Monitor of the Divine Presence. The 1741 List notes that Dom Rogers was "Sr. Edwards" and Dom. Gilmore "ditto, the Town"—which appears to mean that the one was the domestic chaplain and the other served the parish.

Besides Parlington there was also in the parish Stourton Lodge the seat of Lord Stourton, the head of another old Roman Catholic family. It does not appear to have had a chaplain in 1743, though it became later a Dominican mission. For the Benedictines see Bird pp. 96, 97, 353. The numbers of Roman Catholics reported here were in 1706, 17, in 1733, 12, in 1735, 49.

2. Aldborough juxta Boroughbridge (i, 222). There is no Return from this parish, but there was a mission here, supported by the Meynell family until the death of the last squire, George Meynell, in January 1748. The chaplain from 1786 to 1749 was the Rev. Edward Matthews a secular priest, trained at the English College, Rome. Gillow, v, 1, 2, and the 1741 List.

3. Aldfield with Studley (iii, 231). Here were three Papist families and "a Popish Meeting" every first Sunday in the month, which implies a domestic chapel. This was an out-station of the mission at Ravenotofts served by two secular clergy, the Revs. James Skelton and Henry Maire. See Bishop Thornton Chapel, No. 5 below. There were according to the Returns 5 Roman Catholics here in 1706, and 6 in 1738.

4. Ailneale (iii, 244). Here were six Papist families, and the curate complains of the activities of a Roman Catholic Steward of the Lead Works who has dispersed Popish books and "introduced some Papists into the Works." There are no returns for 1706 and 1738; in 1735 the number given is 6.

5. Barnwell in Elmet (i, 44). The rector reports about 20 Roman Catholic "families" here and is in form'd that Mass is performed every Sunday in the Duke of Norfolk's House at Roundhay. The chaplain (whose name the rector does not give) was a young secular priest, the Rev. Martin Hounshall, trained at the English College at Lisbon and ordained priest there on 27 March, 1742. He was a contemporary at Lisbon and no doubt a friend of the Rev. Thomas Liddell (No. 6 in the List of Priests above) whose Jacobite sympathies he evidently shared for he was arrested and taken to York Castle on 18 Nov., 1745 and imprisoned there until 21 Dec., 1746. Upon his release he went to Arundel and later to Lisbon. He died in London 9 August, 1783 aged 65. C.R.S. xiv, 340n.

Barnborough or Barnbow Hall, the seat of the Mores, the direct descendants of Sir Thomas Mere, was in this parish. The chaplain there in 1741 was the Rev. Peter Mere, S.J. Thomas Mere the last male of the family to marry had died, 28 August, 1739; both his sons were Jesuit priests. His widow seems to have removed to York and the property passed to Sir Edward Gascoigne of Parlington. She died 4 Decr., 1767. For the pedigree see Foley v, 702. The numbers returned are 1733, 17, 1738, 22.

6. Bishop Thornton Chapel (iii, 233). Here was a large group of 23 out of the 54 families with its centre at Ravenotofts where Mass was "understood to be performed" once a fortnight. In 1715 Ravenotofts was the property of William Inglby, Gent. a Roman Catholic Nonjuror. Markington, a Hall in this parish, is given as the station of the Rev. James Skelton who was the senior of the two priests serving this mission, in the 1741 List, while the station of the Rev. Henry Mair, his colleague, is given as Ravenotofts. Both were seculars; the Rev. James Skelton trained at the English College at Lisbon, who died at Ravenotofts 28 March 1769, and the Rev. Henry Maire (1714-1775) trained at Douay who left this mission for Clif-Kees after Mr. Skelton's death. For him see No. 7 in the List of Priests above. Both Mr. Skelton and Mr. Maire had by the end of February 1745 been "some time in RiponGaol upon suspicion of corresponding with" Prince Charles Edward "and being papist Priests." (Bishopborough Mss., H. 2, 10). In 1822

Ravenotofts Hall is described as a farm house. C.R.S., iv, 249, xii, 10, xiii, 233, Cosin Roman Catholics, etc., 1715, p. 157. The numbers returned are 1706, 70; 1735, 44.

7. Blythe (iv, 21). The chapel here was undoubtedly at Hodsock Park in the S.W. of this parish, which was the residence of the Shuttleworth family who were Roman Catholics. John, son of George Shuttleworth, of Hodsock Park, Notts., entered Douay on 22 May, 1726, George, a younger brother entered there on 28 May, 1732 aged 11. After his ordination in 1744 George Shuttleworth returned to England and lived at Hodsock till his death in May 1791. C.R.S., xxviii, 129, 130, 163. The Returns give 1706, 15 in 1735; "9 families."

8. Bolsterstone Chapel (i, 75). The Return is, perhaps, almost in the extreme S.W. of Yorkshire where it touches Derbyshire. The communicants came from such long distances that a benefaction was left for their refreshment. Fr. James Pole (or Poole), S.J., was the missionary here at least until 1739 and possibly later. For he died in this, the Derbyshire District in 1760. Fr. Brooks S.J. was Missioner and Chaplain at Mr. Blackhurst's (Blackburn's) at Bolsterstone near Sheffield in 1724 and Rector of the District in 1728. He died at St. Omer in 1751 aged 81. Foley v, 708, vii, 90, 612. C.R.S., xiii, 178. The numbers given are 1733, 13; 1735, 12.

9. Bradfield Chapel (i, 73). This group of about 10 Roman Catholic families was in the same district as the last and was almost certainly ministered to by the same priest. For the Revell of Stannington Grange, in whose house Mass was said, see a note in Hunter's South Yorkshire, ii, 180.

Anne Revell daughter of Mr. Richard Revell of Stannington was clothed as a Novice among the English Canonesess of the Holy Sepulchre at Liége on 14 June, 1694 and was professed on 15 June, 1695. Her name occurs frequently among the records of the Order until her death 29th January, 1749. She was the sister or aunt of the squire mentioned in the Return. C.R.S. xvii, 12, 89, etc. The numbers given are 1706, 12, 1735, 11; 1735, 17.

10. Brandsby (i, 82). Ten out of the thirty-four families here were Roman Catholics but the curate-in-charge states clearly that there was "no Meeting-House of any kind" in the parish. He wrote no doubt from accurate information for at the time of this Visitaton the post of missioner seems to have been vacant. The Cholmeleys of Brandsby Hall were Roman Catholics and had a chaplain resident in their house. The Rev. Henry Kene, a secular priest, trained at Douay, left there in 1691 and was chaplain at Brandsby for 50 years till he died a few months before this Visitaton began, on 6 February, 1742. He seems not to have been permanently replaced till Fr. Philip Rogers S.J. came here as chaplain between 1745 and 1747.

Both the curate-in-charge and the rector seem, from the Return, to have been aggrieved that the rectory house, let to the square, had been sub-let to a Roman Catholic tenant. The rector assures the Archbishop that “there is not a clergyman in the Kingdom more averse to Popery than myself.” Presumably during this vacancy the Roman Catholics here were served from the missions at Gilling, Wolston, or Easingwold, all of which were within a few miles. The numbers given are, in 1706, 74; 1733, 57; 1735, 46.

11. Broughton-in-Airedale (i, 54). This was an old Roman Catholic mission, for the branch of the family of Tempest who were squires here had not conformed. The chapel which the vicar verily believed that the “Romans” frequented on Sundays and Holy Days, “if not at other Times” was, undoubtedly, in the Hall. The squire at this time, Mr. Stephen Tempest (1689-1771) with whom the new and young vicar was so angry about details of tithe, and who, he complains “has the Parish at his Nod” seems in fact to have been a man of unusual charm and education: he wrote a book Religio Laici. The mission was a Jesuit one, served by Fr. Peter Davie, S.J. for whom see No. 4 in the List of Priests above. For a pedigree of the Tempest family see Foley, v, 720 and for the squire see Gillow, v, 539 with the references there. The numbers given are in 1706, 37; 1733, 2; 1735, 8.

12. Bubwith (i, 100). Here, out of 149 families, 6 were “Romans or Papists” but “no Meetg. house nor any Dissent. preacher or Papish Priest.” This small group of Roman Catholics would be dependent on the branch of the Vavasour family at Spaldington in this parish. There was a mission at Williotts, in this parish which was served in or about 1753 by the chaplain at Holme-on-Spalding Moor. See No. 28 below. The numbers given are in 1706, 47; 1735, 21.

13. Burghwallis (i, 64). The rector reports with evident reluctance his belief that there was here “a private Meeting of ye Roman Catholics” and hastens to add “but they are very peaceable.” His predecessor had been of a fiercer temper and had resigned the benefice in 1732, because, to judge by his entry in the Parish Registers, of his strong antipathy to his Roman Catholic parishioners. Burghwallis Hall was (and is) the seat of the ancient family of Anne who were devoted Recusants and had suffered in that cause. It was a Jesuit mission, the chaplain in 1743 being John Messenger, S.J., 3rd son of John Messenger of Fountains Abbey, Esq. Born in 1688 Fr. Messenger entered the Society of Jesus in 1708 and after many years at Burghwallis died there 4 June, 1752 aged 64, Hunter, South Yorkshire, ii, 485, 6. Foley, v, 721, vii, 502. C.R.S. xiii, 185. The numbers given are in 1706, 12; 1733, 8; 1735, 7.

14. Carlton-juxta-Snaith (i, 139). This was a considerable Roman Catholic community. Out of 80 families, 11 were Roman Catholic and 9 “part Protestant and part Roman Catholic.” The squire, Mr. Nicholas Stapleton (of Ponteland, Northumberland as well as of Carlton Towers), a member of an old Roman Catholic family, had succeeded his father in 1715, and died in 1750. His eldest son claimed the Barony of Beaumont, unsuccessfully, in 1789, his great-grandson however succeeded in the claim and was summoned to Parliament as 8th Baron Beaumont in 1840. For the chaplain, the Rev. William Tempest (1683-1766) see No. 12 in the List of Priests above. No numbers are given in any of the three sets of returns.

15. Clifton (iv, 27). Clifton Hall, the seat of the Clifton family, near Nottingham was one of the old chaplaincies of the Derbyshire District of the Society of Jesus. Sir Gervase Clifton sent his son William in 1718 and his son George in 1720 to be educated at Douay. Fr. Edward Scarisbrick (of Neville), S.J. who entered the Society in 1682, was chaplain here in 1700 and later. He died in the London District in 1735 aged 72. Foley, v, 479, vii, 687. C.R.S., xiii, 174, 188, xxviii, 53. The numbers given in 1706 are 32, 1733, 10.

16. Colston Bassett (iv, 28). Sir Edward Golding, 3rd and last Bart., was grandson of Edward Golding, Esq. of this place who had been created a Baronet by Charles I. 27 Sept., 1645. The family were devoted Roman Catholics, the first Baronet retiring from the world to become a Capuchin friar at Rouen. He was succeeded by his second son Charles, the eldest son John, having become, like his father, a Capuchin. Sir Charles dying in 1667 was succeeded by his son mentioned in this Return. Sir Edward was buried 8 Decr., 1715 leaving no male heir. His daughter Magdalen married Anthony Barlow, of Barlow House, Lancs. Esq. and a daughter of theirs, Elizabeth was professed among the English Poor Clares at Gravelines as Sister Frances Clare on 1 January, 1741. The Barlow family came to an end in 1773. The estate at this time seems to have belonged to Lord Strafford: the first Sir Edward had bought it originally from Sir Thomas Kitson whose steward he had been.

Spink Hill was one of the oldest Jesuit missions. It was in Derbyshire, some seven miles N.E. of Chesterfield and S.E. of Sheffield. The Hall there was the property of the Pole (or Poole) family who were staunch Recusants.

For Fr. Thomas Busby, S.J. (1656-1750), see No. 2 in the List of Priests above. He must have been a man of remarkable vigour, since he was 88 at this time and he was re-elected Rector of the District in 1746. C.R.S., iv, 218, xiv, 148. Cockayne. Complete Baronetage, ii, 201. The numbers given in 1706 are 62; 1733, 21.
17. Coxwold (i, 142). The eight Roman Catholic families here, served by the chapel and priest at Oulston, a hamlet in Coxwold parish, would be dependents of the Fauconberg family whose seat was at Newburgh. Thomas, 4th Viscount Fauconberg (1699-1724), who was by birth and training a Roman Catholic, conferred later in this reign to the English Church, and was created Earl Fauconberg in 1756, his wife however, and the other ladies of the Belasyse family remained Roman Catholics. The chaplain at Oulston, the Rev. Thomas Smith (1674-1755) for whom see No. 11 in the List of Priests above, is expressly described in the 1741 List as “wth. La[dy] Falconberg.” This mission was sometimes described as being at Angram Grange, also in this parish: probably because the missioner had for purposes of safety to change his residence occasionally. The numbers given are 1706; 38; 1733, 101; 1735, 96.

18. Crathorne (i, 145). Here out of 49 families, 22 were “Reputed Papists” and met for worship “to the number of seventy or upward” at a farmer’s house on Sundays and holy days, and had “a priest of their own Perswasion.” Crathorne was the seat of the ancient family of Crathorne of Crathorne and Ness (see Hovingham, No. 29 below); their pedigree is in Graves’ Cleveland (1806) p. 103 and Ord’s Cleveland (1846) pp. 490, 491. The squire in 1743 was Mr. Ralph Crathorne, whose brother, Thomas, was a Benedictine, and his sister Mary a nun at Louvain. He died 17 April 1735. The family became extinct in 1844 and is represented now by the Annes of Burghwallis (see No. 13 above). The chaplain to the mission from 24 Feb., 1742 was the Rev. William (later Sir William) Anderson who had been trained at the English College at Valladolid. He was a sufferer in the ’45, for on 26 Decr., 1745 he was arrested and imprisoned in York Castle till 2 June, 1747. In the informations laid against him there are vivid details of the services at which he officiated: he was accustomed to say Mass, on occasion, wearing simply a surplice and stole, not the full suit of Eucharistic vestments. Mr. Anderson, later, assumed the style of the baronetc of Anderson of Penley. He died suddenly in the street in London, 28 August, 1759. C.R.S. xii, 9, xiv, 374a, 387-392. The numbers given in 1706 are 66; 1733, 25; 1735, 62.

19. Easingwold (i, 183). This would seem to have been a more important centre than the Return suggests, when it reports but 3 Papist families though there was a “Meeting-house.” The expression suggests a more or less public chapel such as existed at this time at Hexham and at Linton (Newton-on-Ouse), and certainly at Stokesley. The manor house at Easingwold was the property of Thomas Salvin Esq., of an old Recusant family which represented in direct descent the mediaeval Lords de Mauley and Mr. Salvin certainly had a Roman Catholic chaplain at some period between 1741 and 1750 for the 1741 List records that the Franciscan Fr. Yates had come to him from Burton Constable. The same List gives a Benedictine, Dom William Hardesty, O.S.B. as stationed at Easingwold and this is confirmed by the Benedictine Obit Book which states that Dom Hardesty was at Easingwold 1743-54, though as it says, there is evidence that he served Everingham in 1751. From the Returns of parishes with Roman Catholic missions which lay along the North Road e.g., Kilvington, and here, it looks as if the rumour of this Visitation had caused the Vicar Apostolic to withdraw the missioners for the time, lest inquiries should be prosecuted.

Dom William Laurence Hardesty O.S.B. (1714-1787) was professed at Lambspring 1732 and ordained 1738. He died at Lambspring 18 Feb., 1787. Mr. Thomas Salvin, the Roman Catholic squire born 1703, succeeded his father, William, 1728 and died 1756. C.R.S. vii, 263, Birt, p. 115. Gill, Vallis Eboracensis, (1852), pp., 95, 96. The numbers given in 1706 are 2; 1733, 20; 1735, 12.

20. Egton Chapel (i, 186). Here was one of the centres of a large Roman Catholic district. The curate reckons that 28 out of the 144 families here were Roman Catholics, numbering some 60 attendants at their “private meeting house.” The mission district embraced a large part of East Cleveland, and one of the two priests who served it lived at Ughthorpe in the parish of Lythe (see No. 36 below). There was apparently no family able to support a chaplain, though the Salvins of Newbigin (see Easingwold, No. 19 above) had a house and land here and the Smiths of Egton Bridge “were comfortably off.” According to the vicar of Whithby in a letter of Jan. 1738 the Mass-Room “was in the house of Mr. Smith, and the Roman Catholics had a particular part of the church-yard at Egton assigned for them for ye Interment of their dead.” There was a number of Roman Catholic yeomen and tradesmen in the district who presumably subscribed to support the two priests at work here at this time. They were respectively, the Rev. Monox Hervey, known as “John Rivett” (see No. 10 in the List of Priests above) who lived at Ughthorpe, and the Rev. Thomas Liddell (see No. 6 in the same List) who resided at Egton, coming there in 1743. He was removed in 1745 by the Vicar Apostolic on account, apparently, of his Jacobite activities for which Mr. Hervey, his senior colleague had to suffer. Mr. Hervey in his Register denounces sternly the Roman Catholics of Egton Bridge because when he and his colleague the Rev. Luke Potts fled to Egton from Ughthorpe in December 1745, to avoid arrest, the Roman Catholics there refused them shelter, consequently “after playing hide and seek” i.e. wandering about the moors till they were exhausted, they were forced to return to Ughthorpe where they were taken.
The mission at Egton and Ugthorpe is an old one; the saintly Nicholas Postgate, who was at the age of 79 executed at York in 1679 for no other crime than exercising his functions as a Roman Catholic priest, was one of the priests who had served it, and a very simple and touching hymn written by him when he was imprisoned in York Castle, beginning

"O gracious God, O Saviour sweet, O Jesus, think of me."

was used in 1879 (when Foley wrote) and is probably used still, in the wild moorlands in which this mission was placed.

For a first rate account of this mission by Mr. J. S. Hansom, see C.R.S. xiv, 313 seq. For the Ven. Nicholas Postgate and the complete text of his hymn see Foley, v, 757-761. It is strange that the hymn has not been included in modern collections for it is an aspiration of simple Christian devotion. The numbers given are in 1706, 258; 1733, 144; 1735, 135.

21. Everingham (i, 189). Here was a strong Roman Catholic centre, though the rector in making his Return, uses a severe economy about it. He had been rector thirty-five years and must have been well aware that there was a chapel in the Hall and that until June of this year, 1745, there was a resident Roman Catholic chaplain. But he had evidently no wish to stir up controversy. The two families at Everingham are "about six that are Dissenters, who are Roman Catholicks," and he adds that there is no Meeting-House in the parish. In Everingham was the seat of the ancient family of Constable of Flamborough, who had obtained it by a marriage with the heiress of the Sothills in the 16th century. The branch which owned Everingham seem to have been Recusants from early in the reign of James I, and in subsequent persecutions suffered for their faith. Mr. Hansom conjectures that there was a chapel here regularly served by a priest from 1612. The squire in 1745 was Sir Marmaduke Constable, 4th Bart. who died, unmarried, abroad in July 1746 aged 64 when the estates came to his great-nephew William, 2nd son of Sir Carnaby Haggerston, Bart. who married in 1758, Lady Winifreda Maxwell, grand-daughter and heiress of the 5th Earl of Nithsdale and 9th Baron Herries who escaped from the Tower of London after the Rising of 1715.

The chaplain of this mission from 1717 till his death 21 June, 1743 was Dom John Bede Potts, O.S.B. (1674-1743) a member of a well-connected Northumberland family, who had been professed at Lambspring 21 May 1691, and had come to the English Mission in 1701. From the extracts from his correspondence with Sir Marmaduke Constable it is possible to reconstruct the life lived by a Roman Catholic missioner at this time. Dom Potts was appointed a Definitor of the (Benedictine) Province in 1721 and was made Prior of Durham in 1733. The numbers given are in

22. Ferry Fryston (i, 198). Probably the little group of 5 Roman Catholic families here had a private chapel: the vicar states rather guardedly that there is no Meeting house of any kind that he knows of. But Sutton, close to Ferrybridge was a property of the Isles family who were Roman Catholics and they must have had a chapel since the Superior of the Jesuit District was resident there in 1741 "at Mrs. Eyles" according to Bishop Dicconson's List. This was Fr. Ambrose Jackson al., Eyles, S.J. He died at Sutton, 21 April, 1746. For him see Pontefract, No. 44 below. The numbers given are, 1706, 15; 1733, 6; 1735, 7.

23. Frickley (i, 196). This was original seat of the Anne's of Burghwallis, who had succeeded to the latter estate in the sixteenth century through marriage with the heiress of the Pentons. Bishop Dicconson's List mentions "Mr. Knight of Frickley" as a Jesuit chaplaincy; a Knight of the Lincolnshire family of that name having married an Anne. The curate writes discreetly that out of 55 families there are "some yt. are Papists." but asserts that there is no Licens'd or other Meeting House in the parish. In fact it was a Jesuit mission and had been served from about 1725 by Mr. John Cairnes, senr., S.J., who was born 25th March, 1683 entered the Society in 1709 and died at Frickley 16 May, 1748 aged 65. Foley, v, 722, vii, 407. C.R.S., iv, 260 seq., xiii, 169n. The numbers are in 1733, 9; 1735, 35.

24. Gilling (ii, 221). The rector here makes no Return. Gilling Castle, the seat of the Lords Fairfax of Emley was a Benedictine mission. The chaplain, 1743 to 1750, was Dom William Maurice Westbrooke, O.S.B., professed at Lambspring in 1726 and Prior there 1736-1739. He was in 1740 at Wyton in Holderness (see Swine No. 58 below) before coming to Gilling. Later he worked in Suffolk and Norfolk, held various posts of importance in his Order and died at Lambspring 10 July, 1774. The owner of Gilling Castle at this time was Charles Gregory, 9th and last Viscount Fairfax of Emley whose daughters had been educated at the English Benedictine convent at Cambrai. He died at Gilling 1772. Birt., p. 109. C.R.S., xiii, 61. The senior branch of the Fairfaxes of Gilling died out in 1793. Gilling Castle has again become a Benedictine centre through its purchase in 1929 by the Community at Ampleforth. The numbers given are in 1706, 48; 1723, 27; 1735, 48.

25. Halifax (ii, 31). This small group of ten meeting at George Addison, a plasterer's house, were evidently humble folk. "Mr. Brown from Mr. Townley's in Lancashire" is not easy to identify, see No. 1 in the List of Priests above. The owner of Townley at this time was a child Charles Townley (1737-1806),
APPENDIX A.

The story of the various missions, secular, Franciscan and Dominican at Hexham and Stonecaste is told fully in C.R.S., xxvi, 131-257.

Besides the two chapels with their resident priests in Hexham there were in the immediate neighbourhood various Roman Catholic families who had resident chaplains, as the Erringtons at Beaupre (see Lee, St. John No. 34 below) the Riddells at Swinburne, and the Charltons at Hesleyside.

Bishop Dicconson in his List of 1741, records among the clergy at Hexham, as well as the two priests mentioned above, a Benedictine “Mr. John Charleton at his mother’s at Hexham.” This was Dom John Charleton, O.S.B., born 1717, professor at Douay 1736 and “sent on the English Mission in North Province.” He was later chaplain at Plompton 1745-1762 and died at Douay 1786 (Birt, p. 115). The chaplain at Hesleyside, the home of the Charlton family was apparently, from 1741 to 1747 the Rev. John Donohough. (C.R.S., ii, 355). There are no returns for 1706 or 1733, the number in 1735 is 81.

28. Holme-on-Spalding Moor (ii, 72). The curate-in-charge here answers simply “No” to the question about a Meeting House and a teacher, but in fact here was a Roman Catholic mission with its chapel in the Hall. The estate for rather a century had belonged to the Langdale family who were Recusants, the owner in 1743 being Marmaduke, 4th Baron Langdale who succeeded his father in 1718 and died in 1771. The chapel here, as in some other missions changed in 1743; from c. 1732 to 1743 the post had been held by the eminent spiritual writer Fr. Arthur Pacificus Baker, O.S.F. who was Superior of his Order in this Guardianate; he was succeeded by Dom John Fisher, O.S.B. (1710-1793) who remained here till he retired to Dieulouard in 1788. Dom Fisher, who had been教授 at Dieulouard held various offices of importance in the Order while he was at Holme, becoming President-General from 1772 to 1777 and Cathedral Prior of Canterbury in 1773. He died at Dieulouard 27 January, 1793.

For the story of this mission, and its Registers from 1744-1840, see C.R.S., iv, 272 seq. For Dom Fisher, Birt, p. 117 etc. The numbers given are in 1706, 16; 1733, 20; 1735, 25.

29. Hovingham (ii, 57). The curate returns 11 of the 160 families as Roman Catholics; he is silent about any chapel or teacher. This group centred round the seat of the Crathornes of Crathorne at Ness, a hamlet in this parish, where there was certainly a chapel since there was a resident chaplain Fr. John Vincent Teasdale, O.P. who held the post 1733-1750. Fr. Teasdale ("John Teasdale" in the 1741 List), born 1708, was educated at the Dominican house at Bornhem and after serving this mission for seventeen years became Prior at Bornhem where he died on 5 January, 1790 aged 88. While at Hovingham he asked to be excused attendance at the Chapters of his Order in London owing to "lack of the necessary funds for travelling." C.R.S., xiv, 208, xxv, 133, 155-7, 161-2. The numbers given are in 1706, 94; 1733, 36; 1735, 41.

30. Hutton Rudby (ii, 63). The vicar reports 23 families of Roman Catholics in his parish but no "Licens'd nor other Meeting House." This large group was undoubtedly dependent on the mission at Crathorne, but two miles distant. See Crathorne No. 18 above. The numbers were in 1706, 40; 1733, 4; 1735, 28.

31. Ilkley (ii, 94). This group of 16 families of Popish Recusants with no Meeting House, so far as the vicar knew, was the congregation of the chapel in Middleton Lodge, in this parish, the seat of the old family of Middleton. It was a Benedictine mission served from 1719 to 1745 by Dom Hugh Frankland, O.S.B., born at York, and ordained priest 1705. He became a Definitor of the Province in 1745. He became chaplain at Huddleston Hall in 1748 and died there 16 May, 1755. In the List of 1741 he appears as "Hughho Francelin." C.R.S., xiv, 237. Birt, p. 101. The numbers were in 1706, 8; in 1733, 18; 1735, 42.

32. Kilvington, South (ii, 120). Neither Meeting House nor Teacher are reported in the Return, though there are 12 Papist families. The Meynells of Kilvington Hall were devoted Recusants; their pedigree is in Foley, v, 723. Here was a Jesuit mission; served in 1741 by "Mr. Stansfield" i.e. Fr. Robert Stansfield, S.J., who later worked in York and died at Watten in 1751 aged 83. He was succeeded, from 1741 to 1749 by Fr. Joseph Wright, S.J., who was in turn followed from 2 Sept., 1743-1749 by Fr. Francis Digge, S.J., who was followed by Fr. John Wrothwell, S.J. (according to the 1741 List, Rothwell in Foley), who died chaplain here in 1782. See C.R.S., xiii, 169. Gillow v, 5. Foley, v, 723. In his Collectanea in vol. vii Foley mentions Frs. Wright and Digge but does not mention their service at Kilvington. This mission served also Thirsk and Thornton-in-the-Street, Nos. 60 and 62 below. The numbers were in 1706, 22; 1733, 9; 1735, 35.

33. Kirkby Overblows (ii, 104). This small group of one family and 9 other persons scattered over various families was presumably served by the mission at Plopton, see Spofforth No. 56 below. There is no suggestion of a chapel or a priest. It may have been dependent on Stockeld Park, another house of the Middleton family (see Ilkley), for Bishop Dicconson notes in his List that Dom John Charlton, O.S.B. (1717-1786) was at "Plopton and Stockeld" May, 1745. Cf. Hexham No. 27 above. The numbers were in 1706, 6; in 1733, 11; in 1735, 18.

34. Lee, St. John (iii, 248). The curate returns 7 Papist Families and mentions a report that "there is a place that the papists do resort to." St. John's Lee is a mile and a half from Hexham; in it is Beaufront, then a seat of the family of Errington who were strict Roman Catholics. They certainly had a chapel, the chapel of which from 1737 was Dom Edward Gregory Selby, O.S.B., born at Yardhill, Northumberland, professed at Lambspring April 1726 and chapel at Beaufront 1737 till his death at Hexeside, 6 Feb., 1759. Bishop Dicconson in his List notes him as "Superior" but Dom Birt does not record him as holding office in the Order. There are no returns for 1706 and 1733; in 1735 the number given is 21. Birt, p. 102.

35. Lofthouse (ii, 155). This little group which met "in a private chamber six times in the year," and was served by "Mr. Rivett of Egton" was part of the large district served by the mission at Egton and Ugthorpe. For "Mr. Rivett" see No. 10 in the List of Priests above, and for the East Cleveland mission, of which this was an out station see Egton No. 20 above, and Lythe No. 36 below. The numbers were in 1706, 3; in 1733, 7; in 1735, 15.

36. Lythe (ii, 157). The curate here returns 31 reputed Papist families, "a supposed Mass-House at Ugthorpe, a Teacher whose name is thought to be John Rivett" and a school taught by him. It is one of the two Roman Catholic schools mentioned in the Returns, the other being for girls at "the Nunnery" at York (iii, 141).

The chapel at Ugthorpe seems to have been sufficiently public to possess, in 1745, a clock which struck the hours; it may have been inside and not outside the building. It was a former member of Mr. Rivett's flock at Ugthorpe who gave information against him, in which he describes Mass as said in Ugthorpe chapel. For "John Rivett" were Monox Hervey see No. 10 in the List of Priests above and for the mission see Egton No. 20 above and the references there.

According to a letter of 25 Jan., 1736-7 from the rector of Whitby, Jas. Borwick to Dr. Jaques Sterne, then Archdeacon of Cleveland the number of Roman Catholics in Whitby had increased within six years from 7 to near 40 grown Persons, besides children. The vicar asserts that "Mr. John Trevett" of Ugthorpe "has earned himself a Popish Priest to the vicar of Lythe" and "has boasted to him yet. he forfeited his right to £1100 a year by his turning Papist and going into Orders. This Spark is so far from being afraid of the Law, yt he teaches School (as the vicar of Lythe complains) & has had ye Assurance to invite People to go to hear him do his Duty." (Bishopthorpe Mss., H, 2, 10.) The Returns give the following numbers presumably of grown up Roman Catholics in Lythe; 1706, 135; 1733, 95; 1735, 32.

1 C.R.S. xiii, 324. 2 ib, 386.
37. Middletown Chapel (iii, 236). These 5 Papist families which met to the number of 12 or 14 persons once in six weeks in a dwelling house were an out-station of the mission at Raventofts, see Bishop Thornton Chapel No. 5 above. For their “Teacher, Mr. Mayer” see No. 7 in the List of Priests above.

38. Mitton (ii, 175). This very large congregation, 43 out of 215 families, with its chapel and priest was on the very border of the diocese of York. The house was Stonyhurst, and the Duchess-dowager of Norfolk whose home it was, was Mary, the Winifred Francisca, daughter and sole heiress of Sir Nicolas Shereburne, Bart of Stonyhurst, who had married in 1709 Thomas, 8th Duke of Norfolk who died in 1732. The Duchess is said (Burke, Peerage, 1911, p. 1429) to have married in Nov. 1733 Peregrine Weylringston Esq. but the marriage seems to have been unknown to Fr. Thomas Lawson, S.J. who was her chaplain 1725-1733. For “Mr. Butler,” see Fr. Peter Seel, O.D.C. see No. 3 in the List of Priests above. He was chaplain here from 1740 to 1752. The Duchess-dowager died 25 Sept., 1754 and Stonyhurst passed to the Weld family, becoming later, by the benefaction of Cardinal Welld the famous Jesuit college. C.R.S., iv, 258. Foley, v, 709. Zimmermann. The numbers were in 1706, 31; 1733, 13; 1735, 76.

39. Newton-on-Ouse (ii, 199). This small group of 9 families, which apparently, had a known “Mass-House” was at Linton, in this parish and was an old mission supported by the Appleby family who had their seat at Linton but were by 1743 extinct in the male line. The priest-in-charge was Thomas Daniel, 3rd son of John Daniel of Whittington and Burton, Lancs. He entered Douay May 1730 and was ordained there, Deacon 1738, Priest 1739 and left for the mission at Linton 5 Aug., 1740. In 1742 he was appointed to succeed the Rev. P. B. Tunstall at York, with the obligation of serving Linton from there. Later he became a member of the Chapter, and Vicar-General to Bishop Petre. He died at York 25 August, 1770 aged 65. For Mr. “Mayer” see No. 8 in the List of Priests above: apparently Fr. Peter Maire, S.J. then chaplain to Mrs. More in York is meant. There is a careful history of this mission in C.R.S., xvii, 429 seq. See also xxvii, 153, etc. and Gilew, ii, 12. The numbers were in 1706, 35; 1733, 22; 1735, 20.

40. Norton Cuckney (iv, 111). This like Colston Bassett No. 16 above, was served by the Jesuits at Spink Hill. The chapel was in Holbeck Hall, in this parish which had been in the previous century a great centre of the Society. In 1679, in the Popish Plot fever, it was believed that the Jesuits had here a library worth £1000. It was a residence of the Pierrpont family, Dukes of Kingston-upon-Hull. “After the deaths of two Catholic ladies of the Pierrpont family, Holbeck was attended once a month from Spink Hill” from which it was about nine miles away. It remained a Jesuit mission until the 19th century. For much information about Holbeck Hall, including the escape of a hunted priest there, see Foley v, 479-488. C.R.S., vii, 355, xiii, 177. The numbers were in 1735, 42; there are no returns for 1706 and 1733.

41. Nottingham, S. Peter’s (iv, 107). “Mrs. Willoughby” who had a chapel in her house lived in the Broad Marsh. She was Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Thomas Southby of Birdsall, Yorks. and married Thomas (1692-1742) second son of the 1st and brother of the 2nd Baron Middleton of Middleton. Through her the Birdsall estate came to the Willoughby family. She died 25 April, 1742. Her daughter, Cassandra who died unmarried 19 April, 1744, was also a Roman Catholic as was her second son Francis, known as “Squire Willoughby” who lived at Aspley Hall near Nottingham and had a Roman Catholic chapel. He had married Octavia, daughter of Francis Fisher of the Grange, Grantham. Mrs. Willoughby’s eldest son succeeded as 5th Baron, and the eldest son of Francis Willoughby succeeded as 7th Baron. Her third son, James, became rector of Gainsborough, Yorkshire. The numbers were in Nottingham in 1706, 11; in 1735, 6 Families and 17 persons.

42. Millerton (iv, 115). The Hall here was the residence of the family of Markham who were Recusants; the room which according to tradition, was the chapel, is still pointed out. Thomas Markham Esq. of Ollerton died in this year 1743. By his wife, Catherine daughter of Philip Constable of Houghton he had 12 sons, 7 of whom were at Douay. Two of them died there. Other sons married but died in 1769 and 1768 respectively without issue. On Thomas Markham’s death the Hall was sold to the Saviles of Rufford and presumably the mission here ceased. C.R.S., xxvii, 58. The numbers in Edwinstow parish in 1706 were 41; in 1735 ‘4 Families, 3 Single Persons and a P.? [riest].

43. Osmotherley (ii, 218). Mrs. Juliana Walmesley had given the Hall here to the Franciscans for a Residence in 1665; the Order managed to keep it through the subsequent troubles of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. The fathers served the family of Coates at Stay House, the chapel at Stokesley and a chapel at Silton (see No. 52 below). The Praesae of the Osmotherley Residence was from 1740 to 1749, Fr. Matthew Collingridge, O.S.F., who died in 1764. A priest of this obedience at Osmotherley, Fr. Peter Watson, al. Adams had, in 1744 or a little earlier, left the Roman Catholic communion and was in this neighbourhood, for the Registers of the Rev. Monox Hervey (al. John Rivett) record his reconciliation on 5 June, 1737 at North Lothouse of “Mrs. Ann Coulson of Billsdale” whom “the fallen and Apostate Franciscan Fryer Watson of Osmotherley had perverted and deluded, under Pretence of Piety But after three Years Wandering she on this day” etc. The curate returns but two families “Parishes” and Bishop Dickenson in his List gives Fr. Collingridge’s station as Silton, so apparently the priest was then resident there. For an account of this mission, see Fr. Thaddeus, O.F.M., Franciscans in England, pp. 169, 175, 216. C.R.S. xiv. 374. The numbers were in 1708, 9; no returns for 1733 and 1735.

44. Pontefract (iii, 3). The headquarters of the Jesuit Residence of S. Michael (Yorkshire) had been removed here from York in 1685, a large chapel had been built and a school started. The buildings were wrecked by a mob in 1688 but the mission continued. The vicar returns 10 families out of 850 as Roman Catholics and is silent as to any chapel and priest, though both existed, the assistant curate of a neighbouring parish, Crofton (see i, 127) above, giving the missioner’s name. He was Fr. James Meynell, S.J. (1689-1746) Decr., 1746 aged 57. The Superior of the District Fr, Ambrose Jackson alEyles, S.J. (1685-1746) lived close by at Sutton see Ferry Fryston No. 22 above. He was born in 1685, entered the S.J. in 1704 and having served this Residence for many years, was declared Superior of it in 1727 and held that office till 1744. He died 21 April, 1746. For the early history of the mission see Foley, v, 725-732. For the two priests mentioned ib., vii, 504, 915. The numbers were in 1706, 78; in 1733, 17; in 1735, 27.

45. Ripon (iii, 229). The Dean is not quite exact when he writes that the number of Papists over thirteen years of age, in 1735 was returned as 192, it was 196. There appears to be no record of any returns in 1706; in 1733 the number was reckoned to 215. For Raventofts, the centre of the mission see Bishop Thorlton “Teacher.” The mission itself was a very large one, like that in the East Cleveland (see Egton No. 20 and Lythe No. 36 above); like that mission it was served by two secular clergy also, like the clergy here, got into trouble for their suspected Jacobinism in 1745. To complete the likeness neither mission was protected by any yeoman families. A List of Papists within the Liberty of Ripon summoned to take the oath (of Allegiance) was sent to Archbishop Herring in February, 1745-6; out of 70 names only one, Francis Trappes, is described as “Esq.” four, including the two priests, are marked “gent.” nearly all the rest as “Yeomen.” An earlier list, drawn up for Archbishop Blackburn in 1733 “of the most Considerable Papists within the jurisdiction of Rippon” gives in Rippon itself only 5 names viz.—“John Barney, Gentleman William Benson the Elder [formerly William Benson the Younger] John Messenger of Fountains Abbey Gentleman Mr. Gordon supposed to be a priest.”

46. Rothwell (iii, 16). The vicar here returns vaguely “about twenty” families who dissent from the English Church, including in that total Roman Catholics, Presbyterians and Quakers. He states that there is no Meeting House. But Middleton Hall in the parish was a strong Roman Catholic centre. It was at this time the residence of Ralph Brandling Esq., of Felton, in Cumberland who had acquired it by his marriage with Helen, daughter and heiress of John Legh. It had been an occasional residence of the late Vicar Apostolic, Dr. Thomas Williams, O.P., consecrated Bishop of Tiberiopolis in 1727 by Benedict XIII, though the Bishop’s actual headquarters were at Huddleston Hall, see Sherburn-in-Elmet, No. 52 below. The chapel at Middleton Hall 1727 to 1753 was a distinguished ecclesiastic, Dr. Thomas Worthington, O.P. (1671-1753) who finds a place in the D.N.B. (xxi, 958, 9). His successor, Dr. E. A. Hatton, O.P. removed the mission to Stourton Lodge, near Aberford. Dr. Worthington held the highest office in his Order, that of Provincial in England from 1708-12, 1726-30, 1742-1746 and again from 1750-53. He died at Middleton Hall 25 Feb., 1753. Mr. Brandling had been received into the Roman Catholic communion, apparently by Dr. Worthington, on 1 August, 1735. Fr. Bede Jarrett, O.P., The English Dominicans, pp. 192-3, 224-5 C.R.S., xiii, 161, xiv, 204, 208, xxx, 96, etc. Payne, p. 56. The numbers here were in 1706, none; in 1733, 6; in 1735, 33.

St. John Lee see Lee, St. John.

47. Sancton (iii, 113). The six Papist families here would be dependent upon the mission at Houghton Hall in this parish, the residence of Jorden Langdale Esq. of the elder branch of that family; the younger branch was that of the Lords Langdale at Holme-on-Spalding Moor. Foley states that this mission was served by a Jesuit priest from “about 1766” but the connexion had begun earlier for in the List of 1741 the chaplain here is given as a Jesuit “Mr. John Howard at Cliff Mr. Jord: Langdales.” Cliff was a hamlet in Sancton a little over a mile from Houghton Hall and was an earlier seat of the Langdale family. Fr. Howard was still here in 1753 when the Vicar Apostolic confirmed 10 of his congregation on 7 July of that year. The non-resident curate returns neither chapel nor priest. “Mr. John Howard” is a mistake of the 1741 List for Fr. William Howard, S.J. who entered the Society in 1713, and in 1724 was stationed at Mrs. Thorpe’s at Danthorpe, a Hall in the parish of Humbleton in Holderness, on the estate of the Constables. His activity there stirred the vicar of the parish to write a letter, detailing part of it, to Archbishop Blackburne on 22 May, 1725.
the Archbishop records that he delivered it himself to Lord Townshend, then a Secretary of State. The letter is among the Bishop's Mss. (II, 2, 10). Fr. Howard was still at Danthorpe in 1727, but was evidently moved later to Cliff, possibly after the death of the Old Lady Dunbar in January, 1729. After working in Yorkshire many years Fr. Howard died at the house of his Order, Watten, in 1770, aged 83. C.R.S., xiii, 184; Foley, v, 671, 723; vii, 375. For the pedigree of the elder line of the Langdale family see Y.A.J., xi, 372. The numbers were in 1706, 18; in 1733, 4; in 1739, 14.

48. Sandal Magna (iii, 46). Mr. Zouch, the vicar, is evidently not alarmed at the Roman Catholic colony in his parish. He returns them as four families and states that there is a "Gentleman who hath a Chapell in his House" in the remote part of the parish. He does not mention the name of the priest. The mission thus guarded is referred to as at Walton Hall, the seat of the Waterton family, the squire 1743 being Charles Waterton Esq. who had married a More of Barnborough, sixth in descent from Sir Thomas More. It was an old Jesuit mission, the chaplain in 1743 being Mr. James Pool at Foxe, S.J. who entered the Society in 1707 and spent nearly all his ministerial life in Yorkshire. He died in the Derbyshire District in 1760 aged 75. C.R.S., xiii, 185; Foley, v, 736, where there is a pedigree of the Waterton family. The numbers were in 1706, 37; in 1733, 15; in 1739, 19.

49. Saxton (iii, 43). This small group of 5 families wholly, and 4 partly Roman Catholic was dependent on the ancient family of Hugate, whose seat was in this parish. Dom Birt (Obit Book p. 361) gives Saxton Hall among the Beneditine Missions, rather vaguely, assigning to it the dates "165...175...", but he mentions no resident chaplain. The List of 1741 names no priest stationed here. The owner of the estate, the last male heir of the line, Sir Charles Carrington Hugate, Bart. (1688-1749) was apparently at this date a semi-laic; his sister and heir was the wife of Sir Edward Gascoigne of Parlington, close by. Probably this mission was served from Parlington at this time. Cockayne, Complete Baronetage, ii, 190. The numbers were in 1706, 10; in 1733, 8; in 1735, 26.

50. Selby (iii, 65). Here was a known "Popish Meeting-House" with a service every other Sunday and a group of 9 Papist families. The manor of Selby from the end of the 16th century belonged to the Walmesley family of Dunkenhall, Lancs, who were Recusants. On the death of the last male heir, Francis, who succeeded his father Bartholomew Walmesly in 1700, the estate passed to his sister Catherine who born in 1697 lived until 1788. She had married in 1711 Robert, 7th Baron Petre who died two years later, and secondly in 1733, Charles 14th Baron Stourton who died in 1753. The chapel was in the house of the Steward of the manor at Ousegate, now forming part of the Goods Office of the L.N.E.R. There is an interesting account of the ornaments etc. of the chapel in 1719 left by a Jesuit father who served it. Apparently at this time this mission had no resident priest, but was served by one of the chaplains in the district, possibly from Carlton-justa-Smait. Morell, Hist. and Antiq. of Selby (1867) pp. 138, 270. Foley, v, 734. For the Walmesley family see C.R.S., iv, 186 seq. The numbers were in 1706, 5; no other returns.

51. Sheffield (iii, 56). The vicar mentions in his Return Independents and Presbyterians and names their "Teachers" but is silent about Roman Catholics. There was here, however, a priest who served in a chapel; no doubt in the house of the Duke of Norfolk, who paid, as the 1741 List states, the chaplain's salary. The chaplain was a secular priest, the Rev. Christopher Gradell, second son of Christopher Gradell of Bibles Moor, Lancs, and the last representative of his branch of the family. He was trained at Douay which he entered as a boy of 13 in October 1722. He was ordained priest in 1734, was at Sheffield certainly before 1737, became a member of the Chapter in 1785 and died at Sheffield 27 September, 1758. His name is sometimes spelt "Gradwell." C.R.S., xii, 9; xiv, 219; xxviii, 100. The numbers were in 1706, 15; in 1733, 66; in 1735, 81.

52. Sherburn in Elmet (iii, 64). The assistant-curate returns 5 families of Papists, but mentions neither chapel nor chaplain. Huddleston Hall in this parish was a property of the Hugate family and belonged at this time to Sir Edward Gascoigne of Parlington whose wife was the heiress of the Hugate estates. In 1730 Sir Edward gave up the principal part of Huddleston Hall as a residence for the new Vicar Apostolic of the Northern District, Bishop Thomas Williams, O.P. and it was his principal residence till his death 3 April, 1740. His successor, Dr. Dickson lived, when in Yorkshire, at Wycliffe on Tees. There most certainly have been a chapel in 1743 at Huddleston Hall served presumably by the chaplain at Hazlewood, the Rev. G. H. Heddon, see Tadcaster, No. 54 below. Merry England, No. 56 (Dec. 1897) p. 488 seq. The numbers were 1706, 5; 1733, no return; 1735, 25.

53. Silton, Over (iii, 99). Silton, Nether (iii, 111). The curate who held both these parishes, in his unusually laconic replies, returns 3 Popish families at Over Silton, and 4 Dissenting (undoubtedly Roman Catholic) families at Nether Silton. The manorial lords of both parishes were Roman Catholics, over Silton had been part of the estates of the Lords Fauconberg of Newburgh since 1640, while in 1717 Nether Silton had come to Cuthbert Tunstall (later Constable) Esq. The Præses of the neighbouring Franciscan Residence at Osmotherley, the Rev. Matthew Collingridge, O.S.F., was resident at either one or the other village in 1743,
An informer in 1746 told that he had heard Mr. Collingridge say Mass "in a Chappel at Silton." Fr. Collingridge seems to have escaped arrest however; he was Præses till 1749. He died in 1764. See Osmotherley, No. 43 above. C.R.S., xiv, 388. Fr. Thaddeus, O.F.M., Franciscans in England. The numbers were at Over Silton in 1706, 10; 1735, 11. There are no returns from Nether Silton but in 1706, Leake, of which it was a chapelry, returned 77.

54. Skeelcling with Burstwick (iii, 126). The vicar returns 8 out of the 48 parishes here as "Papists" or "reputed Papists;" he is silent as to any Meeting House they may have had, being more concerned with the Quakers. The 1741 List gives "James Watson at Nuthill" among the secular clergy. Nuthill was in this parish, then occupied by the family of Raines. It was part of the estate of the Burton Constable estate. Mr. Watson, according to a Return to the Archbishop of 1733 was said to be vere Richard Rand (a mistake for Raines) son of an English clergyman and educated at Oxford.

Mr. Watson and Mr. Pinkard, who was in charge of the mission at Marton close by, seem to have ministered to the rather large community of Roman Catholics in Holderness, aided by the chaplain to the Constables, see Swine, No. 88 below. The Rev. James Watson, trained at the English College in Rome died in York, 20 February, 1772 aged 75.

Amongst other Roman Catholics in this parish in 1733 were "Thomas Champney, Gent., Cuthbert Robinson, Gent. and Leonard Metcalf, Gent." Mr. Metcalf had a brother William, a priest trained at Douay and on 24 April, 1735 his own two sons Thomas and William arrived at Douay for their education. He died in 1749. The numbers were in 1706, 38; in 1733, 12; 1735, 45. C.R.S., xii, 12; xxviii, 201. Cosin. Roman Catholics, etc., pp. 134-6.

55. Skelton cum Brotton (iii, 103). This group of 7 families was served by the Rev. Monox Hervey al. John Rivett, for whom see No. 10 in the List of Priests above. For frequent references to the Roman Catholics of Skelton see his printed Register 1734-1745 in C.R.S., xiv, 344-359. The numbers were in 1706, 16; 1733, 15; 1735, 23.

56. Spofforth (iii, 41). The curate-in-charge reports 10 Papist or reputed Papist "Familys," a reputed "Mass-House" in Plompton Hall and a reputed Priest named Hutchinson. The family of Plompton of Plompton descended in the male line, it is believed, from the Norman Conquest; it ended in Robert Plompton Esq., who held the estate when this Return was made. He died unmarried, at Cambrai, 8th August, 1749. The estate then passed to his aunts, two of whom where Benedictine nuns at Cambrai. They with the other heirs sold it. For the chaplain 1740-1745, Dom

Anthony Cuthbert Hutchinson, O.S.B., see No. 5 in the List of Priests above. The mission at Plompton also served Knaresboro' from which it was only two miles distant. C.R.S., xxii, 229 seq. Birt, p. 102. The numbers were in 1706, 101; 1733, 28; 1735, 38.

57. Stokesley (iii, 101). The "private Mass-House" in which "about 40" Roman Catholics met once a fortnight or three weeks had been built about this time by the Lord of the Manor, Bradshaw Pierson Esq. (1692-1746); previously they had used a room in the house of a Mr. Fletch, whose son Thomas turned informer in 1746. As the Return suggests, there was no resident chaplain, the mission was served by the Rev. Matthew Collingridge, O.S.F. from Silton see No. 52, and Osmotherley No. 43 above. Mr. Pierson's chapel was wrecked by a mob in 1746. C.R.S., xiv, 388. Fr. Thaddeus, O.S.F. Franciscans in England, pp. 169, 175, 216. The numbers were in 1706, 53; 1733, 6; 1735, 20.

58. Swine (iii, 127). In this parish, like Hexham, were two Roman Catholic chapels. The chief landowners in Holderness were the family of Constable whose seat, Burton Constable was in this parish. They had never conformed to the changes made in the sixteenth century; on the other hand, though they were staunch Recusants, they seem to have taken no share in plots and were comparatively unmolested by the law. The head of the family in 1743 was Cuthbert Constable who had succeeded his uncle, William, 4th and last Viscount Dunbar who died in 1718. There was always throughout the penal times, a chapel in the Hall at Burton Constable, though it is not clear that there was always a resident chaplain. In 1741 Bishop Dickinson's List notes a Franciscan "Mr. Yates" as chaplain at Burton Constable, but the entry is erased and "Mr. Yates" is entered later as chaplain to Mr. Salvin at Easingwold. This priest seems to be Fr. Bernard Yeats, O.S.F. who was later in 1755, Guardian of the Convent at Douay.

Apart from the chapel in the Hall at Burton Constable there was a mission at Marton, a mile away, of the Rev. John Pinkard, educated in the English College at Rome was chaplain in 1741. (Bishop Dickinson in his List calls the mission "Martin's"). Mr. Pinkard died "in Holderness" 1 July, 1754. At Marton an interesting Roman Catholic chapel exists, apparently of the later eighteenth century, externally much like a farm house. It was erected in 1780 by William Constable Esq. but it probably preserves the site of an earlier chapel. An interesting account of a chapel at Burton Constable 1774 to 1821, Dr. Charles Howard is in C.R.S., xvii, 425. The Mr. Constable, whose chaplain Dr. Howard was, died a complete Deist, if not an atheist. In 1840 the chapel of this mission reported that the books, papers, and monumental inscriptions there went back to 1690.
Apart from the chapel at Burton Constable and the mission at Marton, there was also, from 1740 to 1743 a Benedictine mission at Wyton, in the chapelry of Ilton, in this parish. Wyton Hall, a mile and a half from Burton Constable, and the estate of Wyton were then the property of the Bridges family, who like the Constables were firm Recusants. Wyton passed from the Bridges in 1767. The chaplain at Wyton in 1740 was Dom William Maurus Westbrook (alias Darell) professed at Lambspring 1726 and Prior there 1736-1739. Sent on the English Mission to Wyton 1740 he was transferred to Gilling Castle 1743 where he resided till 1750. He died at Lambspring, 1774. C.R.S., xiii, 8. Birt, p. 109. Payne, p. 40. The numbers were in 1706, 26 families; in 1733, 23; in 1735, 46.

59. Tadcaster (iii, 143). The curate-in-charge returns 10 or 12 families of Papists. Hazlewood, the seat of the ancient family of Vavasour was a hamlet of this parish and its mediaeval chapel of S. Leonard was used by them as their private chapel in which their Roman Catholic chapel officiated. This liberty had been granted to the family, according to the tradition repeated by Lawton, by Queen Elizabeth. The chaplain in 1743 was a secular, George Henry Heddon, trained at Douay and ordained priest there 21 March 1732, saying his first Mass on 5 April, 1733. He left for England 1734 to become chaplain to the Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Williams O.P. at Huddleston Hall (see Sherburn in Elmet No. 52 above). He was with the Bishop when he died at Huddleston 3 April, 1740 but he was also chaplain at Hazlewood in the same year and buried Bishop Williams there publicly on 4th April. Mr. Heddon died at Hazlewood 19 Sept., 1764. C.R.S., xii, 11; xiv, 219; xxviii, 130, 169, 198. Merry England No. 56 (Dec., 1887) p. 490 seq. for the latter years of Bishop Williams. Lawton. Collectio, etc. p. 79. The numbers were in 1706, 19; 1733, 8; 1735, 29.

60. Thirsk (iii, 166). This fairly large body of Roman Catholics, 17 families, would be dependent on the Jesuit mission at South Kilvington, little more than two miles away, see No. 32 above. The numbers were in 1706, 12; 1733, 8; 1735, 30.

61. Thorner (iii, 144). This group of 9 Roman Catholic families was no doubt at Scarcroft, a hamlet in this parish which was part of the estate of the Vavasours of Hazlewood, see Tadcaster, No. 58 above. The numbers were in 1706, 8; in 1735, 6.

62. Thornton-in-the-Street (iii, 170). The 8 Papist families belonged as the curate states, to the Jesuit mission at “Roger Mennel’s Esqr. in North Kilvington.” See Kilvington, South, No. 32 above. There were no Roman Catholics here in 1706; for 1733 and 1735 there are no returns.

63. Tong (iii, 150). The curate makes no return of any Roman Catholics but according to Bishop Dicconson’s List of 1741 and other authorities, a Dominican, Dr. Hatton was at this date stationed "at Mr. Tempest’s of Tong." Tong Hall was the seat of a branch of the family of Tempest, of which another and a Roman Catholic branch was settled at Broughton, see No. 11 above. The head of the branch at Tong, Sir George Tempest (1672-1745) was an English Churchman and rebuilt the church at Tong. His eldest son Henry became a Roman Catholic and was disinherited by his father in consequence. The second son, Nicholas succeeded to the estates, though not to the title, on Sir George’s death, and he then became a Roman Catholic, but died without issue in 1756. Dr. Hatton was evidently in 1743 chaplain to Mr., later Sir Henry, Tempest, who seems to have lived on his father’s estate.

The Dominican authorities are clear that from 1740 to 1749 Fr. Edward Antonius Hatton, O.P., D.D., was at Tong. Previously Dr. Hatton had been chaplain to Mr. Jordan Langdale at Cliff (see Sanuk, No. 47 above), then to Bishop Williams, O.P., 1739 to 1740. In 1749 he was chaplain to Mr. Brandling of Middleton Hall (see Rothwell, No. 46 above) first at his house at Felton in Northumberland and then at Middleton in 1753 on the death of Dr. Worthington. He moved the mission to Stourton Lodge and died there 23 October 1783. C.R.S., xiv, 208, etc.; xvi, 131. No Roman Catholics are reported here in 1706, 1733 or 1735.

64. Whitby (iii, 207). The 25 families of Roman Catholics here were ministered to by the two secular clergy of the East Cleveland mission, see Egton No. 20 and Lythe, No. 36 above. Their activities had in 1736 stirred the rector to write a detailed letter of complaint to the archdeacon, Dr. Sterne, part of which is printed under Lythe above. The rector believed that Mr. Smith of Egton had been trying to hire a house in Whitby in which a chapel could be set up. In 1743 however there was neither a chapel nor a resident missionary. The numbers were in 1706, 51; 1733, 4; 1735, 40.

65. Workhop (iv, 171). This considerable congregation was protected by the influence of Edward, 9th Duke of Norfolk (1686-1777) and the chapel was undoubtedly in his Manor House. The chaplain was the Rev. Cuthbert Haydock, born 1684, son of William Haydock, Esq., of Cottam Hall, Lancs. Trained at Douay he was ordained priest there in 1714 and became chaplain at Workhop in 1723. He was elected a member of the Chapter, 1734, After serving this mission 40 years he died at Workhop 11 January, 1763. C.R.S., xxxviii, 20, etc. The numbers were in 1706, 14; 1735, 75.

66. Yarm (iii, 227). The curate returns 12 Roman Catholic families and states his belief that they had a Place where they assembled. He gives no hint of its whereabouts and he is silent about a "Teacher;" The Friary (Bishop Dicconson in his List calls it "Frerrigerde") Yarm was the seat of the Mayes family who were devoted Recusants. The chaplain in 1741 was Fr. Charles Hopkinson, S.J., known as "Mr. Siddal", "Sydal" or "Siddle." He had been ordained priest 16 March, 1726, entered the S.J. March 1729, and after serving this mission many years died 23 April, 1770 aged 70. Gillow, iv, 548. C.R.S., iv, 253. Foley, vi, 472; vii, 363. The numbers were in 1706, 45; 1733, 25; 1735, 56.

67. York, Holy Trinity, Micklegate (iii, 141). This, of all the York Returns is the most important for this Appendix, since the curate reports a House in which Papists assemble every day in great Numbers, four supposed Priests, eighteen Papist families, and "a Boarding House call'd the Nunnery" in which "Mass is perform'd." No names of the "supposed Priests" are returned.

York and Hexham were the strongest Roman Catholic centres in the diocese in 1743, the total number of Roman Catholic families from the parishes in York which make Returns is 66. In 1706 the numbers were 561; in 1733, 79; in 1735, 249.

1. The Convent.—York possessed one of the two Roman Catholic religious houses then existing in Great Britain (the other was the small convent at Hammersmith). "The Nunnery" was the convent and conventual chapel of the Institute of Mary founded by Sir Thomas Gascoigne of Parlington and others in 1677 and established in its present quarters outside Micklegate Bar in 1686. Its patroness was then the Duchesse of Cleveland and Precentor of York Minster (who appears in these Returns as Rector of Rise, etc.) tried to set the law in motion against the community. He met with little success and in 1751 ceased his attack and later became a useful friend to the convent. Its chaplain in 1743 was Fr. Francis Mannock, S.J. (1670-1748) second son of Sir Francis Mannock, Bart. of Gifford's Hall, Suffolk. He entered the Society in 1696, was professed in 1704, and after many years as chaplain to this convent died on 21 December, 1748 aged 77. The Superior in 1743 was Mother Esther Conyers who had entered the community in 1709 and died in 1756. H. J. Coleridge, S.J., St. Mary's Convent, Micklegate Bar, York (London, 1887). C.R.S., iv, 374 seq. Gillow, iv, 457. Foley, v, 546 (the Mannock pedigree), vii, 485.

2. The Mission of the Secular Clergy.—The priest in charge of this in 1743 was the Rev. Thomas Daniel (1705-1765) of an old Lancs. family. Having been trained and ordained at Douay, Mr. Daniel was appointed in 1740 to the mission at Linton in the parish of Newton-on-Ouse near York. In 1742 Bishop Dicconson gave him charge of the Mission in York, with the obligation of serving Linton from that centre. He became later a member of the Chapter and Vicar General to Bishop Petre. In 1743 he resided in Top Lane on the site of the present theatre and presumably served a chapel there, close to if not actually on the site of the present R.C. church of S. Wilfrid. He was evidently greatly trusted by his Bishop and was the administrator also of some of the finances of the vicariate. See references in Newton-on-Ouse, No. 39 above and C.R.S., xiv, 390-392.

3. Chaplains.—Bishop Dicconson's List of 1741 records the following clergy as resident in York, most of them as chaplains to private families. A certain number of the Northern gentry had at this time "town" houses in York, much as gentry in the South had "town" houses in London:

(i) Peter Maire, S.J. "at Mrs. More's" (which appears to have been in Colliergate). See No. 8 in the List of Priests above, and Newton-on-Ouse, No. 39 above. "Mrs. More" was either the widow of Thomas More Esq. who had died at Barnborough in 1729, or her mother-in-law, the widow of Christopher Cresacre More who died at Barnborough in 1729. Mrs. Cresacre More survived till October, 1744. Fr. Maire was apparently assisting Mr. Daniel at Linton-on-Ouse in 1743. Later he became chaplain to the Convent and died at York 1763.

(ii) John Piatt, S.J. "at Mr. Selby's, York." Thomas William Selby, Esq. of Biddulstone Hall, Northumberland had a house in York in the parish of Holy Trinity, Micklegate in 1738 in which he resided at by his wife, two daughters, a footman and three maid-servants. Biddulstone is said to be the Usaldestone Hall of Rob Roy. Fr. John Piatt (or Pyatt) was chaplain at Mr. Selby's house in York from 1724, having entered the S.J. in 1706. He died at York 19 January, 1743 aged 57. C.R.S., xiii, 181n. Foley, vii, 597.

(iii) Ignatius Anderson, S.J. "at York with Mrs. Knight (of Frickle)." Mrs. Knight was probably Elizabeth Plompton who married (1) Marmaduke Anne of Frickle and Burgwallis Halls and (2) William Knight, of the Lincolnshire family. Like the Selbys of Biddulstone above, the Knights had a chapel at their country as well as at their town house, see Frickle, No. 23 above.

Fr. Ignatius Anderson is Ignatius Sheffield vere William Anderson who born in 1689 entered the S.J. in 1721. He served in the Suffolk District and in 1741 was at York. He was chaplain to Mrs. William Knight at the Old Hall, Kingerby, Lincs. "about 1743" and died there 25 August, 1764 aged 75. He is said to have been a great astronomer. Foley, v, 619; vii, 704. C.R.S., iv, 260 seq.; xiii, 167n.

(iv) Robert Standfield, S.J. The name of this priest appears in the 1741 List with "at Kilvington, Mr. Meynell's", against it erased, and then "York," probably he was at the house of either Roger Meynell Esq.
APPENDIX A.

sen. or of his son Roger Meynell Esq. junr. both of whom in 1735 had town houses in Micklegate. Fr. Stanfield was by this time an old man having been born in 1668, entered the S. J. in 1687 and worked in Yorkshire since 1711. He ceased to be chaplain to the Meynells at Kilvington, see No. 32 above, in 1741 and evidently lived on in York for a time till he retired to Watten where he died in 1751 aged 83. Foley, vii, 730. C.R.S., viii, 1699.

(v) Robert Ambrose Davis, O.S.B. The name of this priest with “York” erased against it appears in the 1741 List. He, like the last, must have been an old man for he had been professed on 2 May, 1688, though not ordained priest till 1697. He also had served at Kilvington, in 1728 and had then worked in Bedale, 1731-2. He died, Dom Birt says rather vaguely “near York” on 1 August, 1754. Birt, p. 100.

Bishop Dicconson’s List gives the name of another Jesuit priest “Mr. . . . Constable with Mrs. Selby at York,” the entry occurring immediately after one of 2 Sept., 1743 so that it does not fall within the time of this Visitations. The entry appears to refer to Fr. Robert Constable, S.J. who seems to have succeeded Fr. Piatt above. C.R.S., xiii, 181.

The curate of Holy Trinity, Micklegate, Mr. Mosley, it will be noticed from these notes, was well informed about the Roman Catholics in his parish, though it seems doubtful whether there were two priests living in the Convent. Fr. Mannock the chaplain lived there, and two other Jesuit Fathers, Piatt and Stanfield, were no doubt living in the parish. Possibly Fr. Anderson did the like, but Mr. Daniel and Fr. Maire, S.J. lived outside its boundaries. There were therefore in 1743, six if not seven, Roman Catholic clergy in York, one a secular, five Jesuits and one Benedictine. Two of them seem to have been superannuated and probably the normal working number of priests was, as Mr. Mosley reckons it, four.

Both the old priests were school boys when their predecessors Nicholas Postgate and Thomas Thwing, in 1679 and 1680, were drawn through the streets of York to be executed after the barbarous fashion of the time, for exercising their office.

APPENDIX B.

PRESBYTERIANS AND INDEPENDENTS.

By P. C. Walker.

Prefatory Note.

The parishes in which congregations of Presbyterians and Independents are noted in these Returns are arranged alphabetically in the following Appendix. For the facts given here I have relied chiefly upon two sources:

1. The Mss. Collections made by the diligent and careful scholar, Walter Wilson, (1781-1847) bequeathed by him to Dr. Williams’s Library, Gordon Square, London.

I owe my grateful thanks to the Librarian of Dr. Williams’s Library for his generous courtesy in assisting my research, to Mr. J. C. Warren of Sherwood, Nottingham, for his help in connexion with congregations in Nottinghamshire, and to my co-editor for the General Sketch.

1.—General Sketch.

By the Act I William and Mary, cap. 18 known as the Toleration Act, which became law on 24th May, 1689, the Protestant Dissenters were relieved from the chief penalties of the four Acts passed by the Restoration Parliament in the years 1661-1665. Henceforth, any Dissenter who took the oath of Allegiance and Supremacy and subscribed the declaration against Transubstantiation was freed from the penalties of the four Acts; Dissenting Ministers, to obtain a like privilege had to subscribe also the xxxix Articles (omitting the first part of Art. xx and Arts. xxxix-xxxiv.) Their places of worship had to be certified and registered by either the ecclesiastical or civil authority and their services to be conducted with unlocked doors. Dissenters were still, however, excluded from municipal, civil, and military office, yet from 1727 it became customary for an annual Indemnity Act to be passed to free Dissenters who had accepted office from the penalties prescribed by the Test Act of 1679. They remained excluded from the Universities and the Houses of Parliament, though by the Act of Union of 1707 the 16 peers who represented Scotland in the House of Lords and the 45 commoners who represented her in the House of Commons were free from the English sacramental test and could sit and vote though members of the Established Church of Scotland, i.e., as Presbyterians.

This grace granted to Scottish Presbyterians does not appear to have increased the influence of the Presbyterians in England.
Their strength lay in the cities among the rich mercantile class; it lessened as they became a number of detached congregations. The Independents who had risen into importance under the Commonwealth shared with the Presbyterians a devotion to the theology of John Calvin though they differed widely from them in their theory of Church government. Alike by their common Calvinism and by the force of circumstances the Independents were brought closer to the Presbyterians, so that it is difficult in the records always to distinguish precisely between Presbyterian and Independent congregations. The facts collected here show, however, a most important force at work, which was to be countered among the Dissenters by the Methodist Revival. This force was the revival of Arianism, often called Socinianism, and later known as Unitarianism. To this force the English Presbyterians ultimately very nearly succumbed, many of their Christian members becoming Independents.

The facts recorded here illustrate the change which was proceeding actively in 1743. The Independents resisted the Unitarian challenge, consequently they are in not a few cases the successors of congregations originally Presbyterian, for orthodox Presbyterian congregations preferred an Independent minister to a Presbyterian who was in fact a Unitarian.

As in the case of the Roman Catholics who were divided by the controversy between the Vicars Apostolic and the Regulars, these Returns do not call attention to the struggle that was going on; the facts they record when they are examined closely, as in this Appendix, illustrate it very clearly.

2.—List of Parishes.

Arnold. Nathaniel Whitlock, was the colleague of Dr. Samuel Eaton, of High Pavement Chapel, Nottingham, and grandson of the founder of that Congregation, John Whitlock, ejected from S. Mary's, Nottingham in 1662.

Attercliffe. Sheffield, Upper Chapel. In 1700 a commodious chapel was built. After the secession of part of the congregation to Nether Hall in 1714, John Wadsworth, late of Rotherham (1701), became their Minister. He resigned through ill health in 1744 and was buried at Nether Hall. His last assistant was his son, Field Sylvester Wadsworth who was requested to withdraw from Dr. Doddridge’s Academy, at Northampton, for unorthodox views on the Trinity. He succeeded his father and resigned from ill health in 1758. John Wadsworth was instructed under the celebrated Mr. Timothy Jollie at his Academy at Attercliffe, whom he succeeded there and ‘supported the character of a tutor with great respectability for a number of years.’

Aytos (Cleveland). The records are very incomplete. Tradition records that, on account of the religious troubles in Scotland, several Scots settled in this vicinity. One became Lord of the Manor, and the first Meeting House was built by him on his land. Mr. Andrew Porteous preached his last sermon at Aytos on Feb. 8th, 1746-7, from Phil. i. 27, and next appears at Nuneaton, where his ministry was regarded as having a tendency to Arianism.

Batley. Mr. Timothy Aldred from Morley Old Chapel (1709), a scholar; he opposed Wesley’s doctrine of perfection. He was only once absent from his pulpit during the 54 years of his pastorate. In 1715, he had 450 hearers. He resigned in 1763.

Beverley. The Meeting House in Lairygate was erected in 1704 by the Presbyterians. Later in the century the property was assigned to the Independents. The chapel was blown down by a violent storm in 1715. John Harris, M.A., was minister in 1737; his successor was appointed in 1777.

Bingley. Thomas Wainman was educated at Frankland’s Academy for divinity and medical students at Rothwell. He died in 1746, and was buried in the parish church yard. For his sons, John and Benjamin Wainman, see Padsey below.

Birstall. John Kirkby of Heckmondwike Upper Chapel, 1710. He had a school in White Lee, Heckmondwike, and was incapacitated by increasing infirmities. He died on Feb. 14th, 1754, aged 77, and was buried near the Meeting House at Heckmondwike. He was succeeded by James Scott (see Gisburne) and Evan Stock (see Cleeheaston).

Bishop Burton. Licensed Presbyterian Meeting House. 10 or 20 assemble once in 3 weeks to read and pray and sing Psalms. No Teacher.

Bildworth. A Meeting House endowed with 40 shillings a year, having Presbyterian and Independent teachers alternately, and assembling once in 6 or 8 weeks.

Bradfield Chapel. Samuel Smith, of Stannington, 1713. He died at Stannington in 1781. Richard Spoon built a small chapel there in 1652 or 1653. In 1742, the old Chapel was replaced by a new one, erected by T. Marriott Esquire of Ughill.

Bradford Chapel. In 1717 or 1718 a new Meeting House was built at a cost of £340 3s. 5d., the ground being given by Robert Stansfield, who married a daughter of Mr. T. Sharpe of Mill Hill Chapel, Leeds, cousin to Bishop Sharpe. 1731, Joshua Hardcastle, from Swanland, 1715, minister. He died at Bradford, and was succeeded by (1753) John Smith (see Halifax, Messenden below).

Bridlington. A new Meeting House was erected about 1706, called Zion Chapel, and was further endowed in 1728 by E. Huddlestone, Esq., ’of or near York’. 1736, Thomas Lax, minister, from Topcliffe (1727) where he was succeeded by Robert Hesketh.
(see Crostone Chapel below). Mr. Lax was at Bridlington in 1745 (next name, 1783).

Burton Joyce with Bulcot. Here was a Meeting House, in 1743 unused.

Calverley. Minister, James Huthwaite (the Return has "Huthwait," incorrectly) of Idle (1724). He died at Idle on June 25th, 1768, age 77 and has a monument in Idle Chapel. He left the Congregation in a state of great declension. Mr. Huthwaite came to Idle from Warley (1722), where he was succeeded by John Smith (see Halifax, Mixenden), Evan Stock, 1784 (see Cleckheaton) and William Graham, 1742 (see Warley). For John Wainman see Bingley and Pudsey.

Cawston. Here was a Meeting House, 'unused for 5 or 6 years'.

Cave, South. In 1715, the Congregation amounted to about 400 hearers. James Mallison was pastor at Howden, when the Chapel was built there (1722).

Cleckheaton. In 1710, worship was held at a hamlet called Swinley or Egypt, between Cleckheaton and Gomersal. In that year, John Dixon of Bradford purchased a plot of land on which the first Chapel was erected, which, being of brick, was called 'The Red Chapel.' In 1741, the minister was Evan Stock not "Stott" as in the Return, who succeeded John Angier (1728) who removed to Swanland (see Ferrby, North). Mr. Stock was probably of Arian sentiments'. He married a lady of property, and ministered at Cleckheaton for nearly 20 years (see Calverley).

Coley Chapel. The Chapel referred to was probably that at North Ovram.

Cottingham. A Chapel existed in 1696, and is said not to have been the first. In 1734, John Brooke was minister. He died on Feb. 2nd, 1750.

Crostone Chapel. Minister, Robert Hesketh, 'Glasgow University', from Eastwood (1739), having been previously at Bolton, Lancashire and Woodkirk. From Crostone, he went to North Ovram (1744), where he died on Jan. 19th, 1744, aged 77, and was buried in the Chapel Yard, where is a tombstone with Latin inscription: 'A valuable man; orthodox and peaceable'.

Darfield. The Chapel was at Great Houghton in Darfield parish. 'The Chapel is now united to the Church of England.' This Return mentions a 'Mr. Trout from Sheffield' as minister in 1743.

Doncaster. A Meeting House was built about 1640. This Return records — Roberts' as minister, but from 1734-1750, Laurence Holden is given as minister.

Eccleshall. A small Chapel was built at Fulwood (Sheffield) about 1724. Jeremiah Gill, minister. Died 1788. He was, perhaps, son of Jeremiah Gill who was assistant to Timothy Jolie at Sheffield Upper Chapel, and who died in 1709. Wilson mentions one of the same names who was 'near 50 years minister of the Presbyterian Congregation at Gainsborough, where he died, 1796. Educated first under Mr. Wadsorth at Sheffield, and afterwards under Dr. Doddridge at Northampton. He was at Northampton in 1738, and settled at Cambridge before he went to Gainsborough'.

Ferrby, North. Minister, John Angier not "Anger" as in the Return, at Swanland (1740), where he was for about 40 years and where he died. He was buried at Ferrby (See Cleckheaton). 'Nothing is known of the origin of the Congregation at Swanland, which is one of the oldest Independent Societies in the Country'. History of South Cave, J. G. Hall, p. 242.

Firbeck. Chapel unused for more than 2 years.

Gargrave. The Chapel was at Winterburn, built by Mrs. Lambert 'one of the Asshetons of Arnoldsbiggin, now Gisburn Park.' She married John Lambert a son of the Republican Major General Lambert (1619-1683, see D.N.B. xi. 452-459) whose family seat was at Calton. She was a zealous Presbyterian, and the Chapel was erected as a place of worship for the miners on the estate. No names of ministers are given.

Gisburn. Minister at Horton in Craven, James Scott, 'University of Edinborough', 1728-9. A native of Berwickshire, born 1710. For some years, he was a private tutor. On hearing that many congregations in England needed pastors, he crossed the Border and settled in 1739 at Stanton in Westmoreland, and removed to Horton (1741), Tockholes, Lancashire (1751), and Heckmondwike Upper Chapel (1754) where he succeeded John Kirkby, and set up an Academy. He died on Jan. 11th, 1783. 'The Chapel could not contain the anxious and listening multitudes who came to hear Mr. Scott, for he was beloved by those who knew him'. (See Birstall).

Greasley (Notts.). Meeting House. Meets once a fortnight. About 40 out of 100 families.

Halifax. A Presbyterian Chapel was opened in 1696. It had a Congregation of 600 in 1715 '16 of whom had votes for the County.' Minister, 1728, Eli Dawson from Bradford (1706). He was the youngest son of Rev. Joseph Dawson of Morley, and was educated at Mr. Frankland's Academy at Rothwell with his brother Samuel. He had 7 sons, 6 of whom were brought up to the Dissenting ministry; but, greatly to the disgust of their father's friends, abandoned it, and 5 of them conformed, mainly (it is said) owing to the persuasion of Dr. Leigh, Vicar of Halifax—so great was the indignation that, when an application was made on behalf of a Joseph Dawson for assistance from a fund, it was deemed necessary to certify that he was not one of the same family.' Eli Dawson died in 1744. A new Meeting House was probably erected in his time at Halifax. For two of his sons, Samuel and Joseph, see Wisbech Chapel and Hull, Bowl-Alley Lane. Another son, Eli, who conformed, became Chaplain to a Man of War. He preached the first Protestant sermon in Quebec, the extract from which in the Monthly Review for 1760, contains an eulogy on the brave General Wolfe, which exhibits the author's talents for splendid panegyric in a very favourable point of view. He afterwards obtained a living in the West Indies, where he died' (Wilson).

Halifax (Elland). A Meeting House was erected before 1700, chiefly through the agency of the Brooksbank family. Minister, 1742, Thomas Farrar, of the Farrars of Elland Park. He died 1745. He came to Elland from Eastwood (1739) where he was succeeded by Robert Hesketh (see Crostone).

Halifax (Mixenden). In 1717, a second Meeting House was erected at Moor End on the estate of Rev. Matthew Smith, M.A., University of Edinburgh, who founded the Presbyterian Connexion here. In later years, he was assisted by his son, John Smith, who succeeded him on his death in 1736, and who had been minister at Warley (1724). John Smith was 17 years at Mixenden, removing to Chapel Lane, Bradford in 1753. He died in 1778 and was buried at Mixenden. 'He gradually verged into Arianism in his later years.' (See Calverley).

Halifax (North Owram). The Chapel was opened on July 8th, 1688, built by Rev. Oliver Heywood, B.A., who formed a Congregation there 'with some deviation from strict Presbyterian principles. Most of the Nonconformist congregations in a very wide district (of which North Owram was a central point) owed their origin or their consistuency to his exertions. In 1710, a new Trust Deed describes the Chapel as a 'Meeting house for religious worship for Protestant Dissenters.' Minister, 1702, Thomas Dickinson, educated at Frankland's Academy. 'A valuable and devoted minister.' He died on Dec. 26th, 1748, aged 74. His tombstone is at North Owram, where he was succeeded by Robert Hesketh (see Crostone). Mr. Dickinson had 12 children; one of his sons had been in two battles and escaped unhurt, but being seized with fever on his passage from Cartagena, he died in 1741. Thomas Dickinson published two Sermons (I) On the Death of Rev. Thomas Whitaker, M.A., of Leeds, who died Nov. 19th, 1710 (II Sam., 3, 38), and (II) a Funeral Sermon for Mr. John Brooksbank of Elland, who died Sept. 26th, 1715 (I Tim., 1, 15).

Halifax (Sowerby). Chapel built in 1720. Minister (1721) William Dodge 'a useful preacher and physician'. Buried in the Chapel; no date (next name, 1744).
Kirk Burton. The Return gives ‘William Eddins’ as minister here. This is possibly William Eden, who was at Elland and Eastwood in 1745.

Kirby Malzeard. Meetings held at ‘one Aker’s house’.

Kneessal with Upton. Meeting House. Once a month. 20 in number.

Leeds. At the Mill Hill Presbyterian Chapel, ‘built after the Declaration of Indulgence in 1672’. Rev. Joseph Cappe ministered between 1710 and 1748, succeeding William Pendlebury, father of the Rev. William Pendlebury (see Rotherham below). For Mr. Cappe’s son see York, St. Saviour Gate. There was also Call Lane Chapel (Independent).

Malton, New. The ‘late teacher’ mentioned in the Return was possibly Hananah Elston (1730).

Mansfield. ‘Mr. Shaw of Mansfield was a very near relation of Ferdinands Shaw, M.A., of Derby’. He published a ‘Covenant Sermon’ (1714), two Sermons on the ‘Landing of the Pretender’ (1716), and a Sermon on ‘Prince Frederick’s Birthday’ (1729), 8vo.

Nottingham. Samuel Eaton, D.D., University of Edinburgh, was pastor of the High Pavement Chapel, and came from Allostock in Cheshire. He died on Oct. 26th, 1769. Probably a relative of George Eaton, the Baptist minister there. Thomas Harrop was another minister of the same Chapel. He was in Nottingham in 1741 and 1753 and settled at Wem in 1755. The Wilson MS. mentions ‘Samuel’ Harrop, educated under Dr. Dodridge, who settled early in life with a Dissenting Congregation at Stafford, and from thence removed to Wem, where he died in 1781. ‘You have probably heard that God hath removed good Mr. Harrop of Wem to a better world. I wish that Congregation may be supplied with a suitable man, but they are reduced to a very low state by the incursion of the Methodists and other disorderly people. It is, I think, the only instance I have known, of a serious, active, laborious and truly evangelical preacher and pastor, who hath seen his Congregation sinking under him’. (Orton Letters, ii, 27.) James Schloss was minister of the Independent Congregation at Nottingham. He came from Scotland. He published a volume of Sermons on the Trinity (1752), and was attacked by Dr. John Taylor of Norwich (1694-1761) (see D.N.B. xix. 439) in a pamphlet entitled ‘A Narrative of Mr. Joseph Rawson’s Case’ 1737. Mr. Rawson had been excluded from Mr. Schloss’s Church for heterodoxy on the Trinity. Mr. Schloss died at Nottingham on May 1st, 1772.

Ossett-Green Chapel. This Congregation was founded (1717) by separation from Wakefield. At first, the Meeting was a pressingshop, in which Rev. Thomas Dickinson (see Halifax, North Overy) who had married an Ossett lady, preached the opening sermon. A Chapel was built in 1733. Minister (1734) Rev. Thomas Lightfoot, from Long Houghton. Also mentioned as preaching at Dewsbury. He died on Nov. 3rd, 1758.

Plumtree. For James Sloss see Nottingham (above).

Pondefract. Minister (1715) Rev. Benjamin Sandford. ‘At this time the Congregation which was now Independent, included several families of influence’. Mr. Sandford studied under Dr. Rotheram at Kendal. Later he seems to have settled at Ormskirk, Lancashire, where he died about 1767.

Pudsey. A Chapel is mentioned in 1611, and a new one was opened about 1695. Minister (1727) Rev. John Wainman, son of Rev. Thomas Wainman (see Bingley). He was born at Bingley in 1706, where he periodically exchanged pulpits with his father’s successor. He died on June 10th, 1770 aged 64, and was buried in the Old Chapel at Pudsey. For his brother, Benjamin Wainman, see Kildwick in Craven and Silsden Chapel, in the text of the Returns.

Retford, West. Meeting House, but no Presbyterian families in the parish.

Rotherham. A new Chapel, built about 1695, ‘attended by highly respectable puritanic families’, some of whom had private chaplains at their own residences,—amongst them, Mr. Foljambe of Eastwood (Aldwarke Hall). Minister (1738) Rev. William Pendlebury, who resigned in 1743 and afterwards conformed. For his father, see Leeds, Mill Hill Chapel.

Scarborough (Old Presbyterian Meeting House). Chapel erected in 1703 in St. Sepulchre Street, probably occupying the site of the ancient possessions of the Knights Hospitallers. It was enlarged in 1744, and rebuilt in 1801 (History of Scarborough, J. Brodgen Baker). Minister (1728) Rev. William Whitaker, from Goudhurst, Kent, who retired through old age and infirmities in 1773, and died three years later, aged 81.

Selby (Mill Gate Presbyterian Chapel). ‘Smith, educated at Kendal under Dr. Rotheram, and settled at Selby where his son is now minister’. (Wilson).

Sheffield (Nether Chapel—Congregational). Built, 1715. Separated (1714) from the Upper Chapel. Minister, Rev. — Smith (no date, but before 1748). ‘He lost the respect of his people, and died in great distress'. The other minister mentioned in the Return as 'Mr. Wordsworth', appears to be John Wadsworth (see Attercliffe).

Sowerby Bridge. For William Graham, see Halifax, Warley.

Sutton-in-Ashfield. The Return gives Samuel Wilson, preacher of the Presbyterians and Independents. The Wilson MS. mentions a Samuel Wilson (no place given) who was 'a very popular preacher among the Baptists and a Lime Street Lecturer', and who published several works from 1732-1738.

Tadcaster. An old Congregation existed here under the title 'Tadcaster and Clifford'. It is mentioned in 1715, but without being characterised as Congregationalist or Presbyterian. The Return mentions 'Mr. John Morton' as Presbyterian minister here and at Healaugh.

Thornton (Bradford). Minister (1711) Rev. Samuel Hulme. During his time, the Congregation is reported to have numbered 300. He had a salary of £40 a year, and 11 children. He died in 1756, aged 70.

Wakefield (Westgate). A Meeting House was opened in 1697. In 1715, the numbers were 400, of whom 40 were freeholders of the county. Minister, (no date, but between 1724 and 1761) Rev. John Aldred, educated at Frankland's Academy. Son of Jeremiah Aldred of Morton. For Timothy Aldred see Batley.

Whitby (Flowergate). In 1685, meetings were held in a private house in Bridge Street. About 1715, Mr. Leonard Wilde, a sail-maker, bought a plot of ground for a Chapel, and liberally endowed it. Minister (1729) Rev. Isaac Barker. Died 1756.

Wilsley. Minister, Rev. Samuel Dawson, one of the seven sons of Eli Dawson (see Halifax). Later, he conformed, kept a School, and was complimented by one of his pupils, Mr. Sholefield of Birmingham, in a Sermon preached at Cockermouth in 1769, as 'one of the Clergy of the Establishment from whose exertions a reformation in the Church might be expected.'

Widmerpool. Meeting House unused.

Wilford. Four Presbyterian and three Independent families.

Woodkirk (Woodchurch or Topcliffe). Midall. Congregational. The first meetings were held at Topcliffe Hall, then inhabited by Captain Pickering 'a person in whom Cromwell expressed great confidence'. James Naylor, the Quaker, was originally a member of this congregation. Minister (1736) Rev. Robert Hesketh (see Crostone).

Wollaton and Cossall. Six Presbyterian families.

Woodborough. Meeting House, but no meeting for seven years, and no dissenters in the parish.

York (St. Saviour Gate). Meeting House built in 1692. Minister (1731) Rev. John Hotham, educated at Jollie's Academy.

He had been a member of Mr. Jollie's congregation at Sheffield, and was probably a Congregationalist. He died on Jan. 4th, 1756. In 1732, Rev. John Brook was appointed co-pastor. Mr. Brook is spoken of in The Gentleman's Magazine as 'eminent'. He died in 1735, and was succeeded in that year by Rev. John Root, previously assistant to Mr. Whitter (see Hull, Bowl-Alley Lane). The Rev. Newcome Cappe (see D.N.B. iii. 933) followed Mr. Hotham in 1756. For his father Joseph Cappe see Leeds. Mr. Hotham's predecessor at York was Thomas Colton, M.D., whose assistant he had been, and who is referred to in the Return as a benefactor of a school at Elloughton (see Elloughton). Dr. Colton was educated at Leyden, and being a man of considerable property, he also endowed a hospital for eight poor women at York. (See Lawton's Collectio, p. 40, 'Colton's Hospital'.)
APPENDIX C.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS. METHODISTS AND MORAVIANS. BAPTISTS.

By P. C. Walker.

Prefatory Note.

In this Appendix are collected some Notes on the congregations of, respectively, the Society of Friends, the Baptists, the Methodists and the Moravians mentioned in these Returns. Of these various bodies, the Society of Friends was by far the largest; its members are noticed in 310 of the Returns and 107 of their Meeting Houses are reported. No other body of separatists from the English Church in the diocese in 1743 was so widely spread, for the Friends were strong both in the country parishes as well as in the towns. The Baptists were a small body; they are credited with 17 Chapels and they are mentioned in but 62 Returns.

The Moravians appear in four and the Methodists in 22 of the Returns, nearly all in one district of the country, viz., the part of the West Riding round Leeds and Bradford. In 1743 the Methodist Revival was only seven years old and the link between the Methodists and the Moravians was still close.

The authorities for the facts about the Society of Friends come almost entirely from the MSS. preserved at Friends' House, Euston Road, London and I record here my most grateful thanks to the Librarian for the generous hospitality of that splendid Library. I thank also my co-editor for much help in compiling this Prefatory Note, and Mr. H. R. Hodgson, of Bradford.

Among the MSS. of the Archdeacon at Bishopthorpe is a collection of papers labelled "Quakers" and numbered in the Catalogue of MSS. as Bundle 26. These MSS. are the materials from which Dr. Hayter, then Archdeacon of York and Chaplain to Archdeacon Blackburn wrote in 1741, the bulky pamphlet referred to in the Return from Allendale. It bears the title, An Examination of a Book, lately printed by the Quakers; and by them distributed to the Members of both Houses of Parliament, Entitled, A Brief Account of many of the Prosecutions of the People called Quakers, etc., etc.

I have found little material for illustrating the references in the Returns to the Baptists. The references to the Methodists can easily be filled out from the printed Journals of Mr. John Wesley. The Friends were at this time as issue with the authorities of the English Church over the question of tithes, which, from scruples of conscience, Friends felt unable to pay. A Bill which attempted to bridge the difficulty was introduced into the House of Commons in 1736 and passed by large majorities but it was lost in the House of Lords owing to the strong opposition of the Bishops and of the Law Lords. Lord Hervey, sceptic and profligate though he was, took up the cause of the Friends with great zeal, wrote a pamphlet in their favour, spoke for the Bill in the House of Lords, and in his famous Memoirs left a very full account of the affair. According to him the King was furious at the loss of the Bill, spoke of the Bishops as 'a parcel of black, canting, hypocritical rascals'; and said 'the Government was likely to go on well if these scoundrels were to dictate to their prince how far he should or should not comply with the disposition of his Parliament; and to be giving themselves these impertinent airs in opposing everything that did not exactly suit with their silly opinions'. But the Bill was lost and no attempt was made to reintroduce it. The exasperation died down, but at the time of these Returns the Friends and the newly arrived Methodists were both unpopular in Church circles. The three older bodies of Dissenters, viz., the Presbyterians, the Independents and the Baptists by accepting the Regium Domum in 1729 had seemed to acquiesce in the system which had become established.

The notes on the various congregations recorded here illustrate the progress of the movements that were at work. The Friends suffered an extraordinarily rapid decline, Mr. J. S. Rowntree has described the history of the Society in Yorkshire from 1690 to 1760 as 'a period of civil toleration, growing earthly wealth, and lessening spiritual zeal'. The General Baptists were deeply affected by the Arian movement, so that the old General Assembly of the General Baptists is now "a smaller inner circle" in the Unitarian body. The Particular Baptists were however quickened by the Methodist movement and remained orthodox.

The Returns give no suggestion of the power of the Methodist Revival which was to arrest the progress of Arianism, quicken into new life orthodox Dissent and become alike in the country and the towns more powerful than any other Dissenting body.

Authorities.

2 The Regium Domum which had begun in 1673, became after 1723, an annual grant of £500, later increased to £1,000. In 1784 it was raised to £2,200, in 1795 to £8,000, in 1863, when it was abolished, it had reached £30,746. For its see Dole, History of English Congregationalism, pp. 250-587. H. W. Heptonstall. A Meeting House; meeting, every second Sunday; numbers 30. Ministers:—(i) David “Crosley” [sic] Crosby. One of the most popular preachers among the Calvinist Baptists, and instrumental in raising 3 or 4 churches in Lancashire and Yorkshire. Was acquainted with John Bunyan. In his old age, he kept a School. He was the largest man in the County, his weight for 20 years averaging 20 stone. He died at Godshaw, in Rossendale, Lancashire in 1744, aged 75. ‘Lancashire and Yorkshire were planted not from Manchester or Warrington or Liverpool, but from Heptonstall. William Mitchell began preaching about 1684, and after prison in both counties settled down in earnest under the Indulgence of 1687. He soon called to his help a cousin, David Crosby (Crosley)…… (who) was baptized in August, 1692, by John Eckels, the clothier-pastor of Bromsgrove, and next month was formally called by that church to the ministry…… by 1696, there was an Association which soon united Tottlebank in Furness, Bacup in Rossendale, Rawden and Sutton in Airedale, Barnoldswick, Heptonstall in Calderdale. All the leaders in this district who can be identified were farmers, masons, weavers; not one had any tincture of higher education……. The sturdy independence of Yorkshire and Lancashire came out in an emphatic repudiation of the claims of Crosby to superintend, and notice to him that he must regard himself as a member of one church alone, and must act under the direction of that church’. (Whitley, History of British Baptists, pp. 179-180). For David Crosby, see also Kildwick (Crawen). His Life is in D.N.B. v. 214.
Huddersfield (Salendine Nook). 1743. 'From Heptonstall, the waters-head of all the district, there arose a group of churches round Salendine Nook' (History of British Baptists).

Hull (S. Mary's). In 1736, the Baptists fitted up a place in Manor-alley, Lowgate, called at that time King Henry the Eighth's Tower. First numbers, 18. The place was later used by the first Methodists. A new Meeting House was erected (1757) in Salterhouse Lane, called Hull Boulevard. (Tickell, p. 820-1). Mr. Thomas Palmer (c. 1738) of Broughton in Cumberland, was the second minister, remaining there for 14 years. 'He returned to his native place on account of some family circumstances', but afforded occasional assistance until the arrival of the new pastor in 1782. (See Bishop Burton).

Nottingham (S. Mary's). Teacher, '— Morley, a Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital'.

Nottingham (S. Nicholas). George Street Chapel, 1740. Meeting every Sunday to the number of 30 or 40. The Pastor, 'George Eaton was probably a son of Dr. Joseph Eaton, who seems to have combined the ministry with medicine. He was for a time in Nottingham, and removed to Colchester, afterwards settling in London as a physician. He evidently was connected with the Presbyterians, for he took part in a Presbyterian ordination at Nottingham on April 6th, 1703'. (Kindly contributed by Mr. J. C. Warren).
